

Penalty for contravention }

trol and superintendence of the said Supervisor, under a penalty of the market value of any article of Lumber so illegally shipped, and such penalty shall be recoverable before any Court of competent jurisdiction from the owner or owners, shipper or shippers, or from the proprietor or proprietors, lessee or lessees of the premises from which such Lumber shall have been so illegally shipped, and proof of the fact of Lumber having been placed alongside, or taken on board of any sea-going ship or vessel, shall be deemed sufficient evidence of such illegal shipping of exportation by sea; and proof of the measuring, culling or counting of such Lumber, in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, shall fall upon the party charged with such illegal shipping, and the market value of any article of Lumber so illegally shipped shall be ascertained by the certificate of the Council of the Quebec Board of Trade, or by a certificate under the hand of the supervisor, or by other legal evidence of such value; Provided always, that the provisions of this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to any place below the eastern end of the Island of Orleans.

What proof
 shall be sufficient.

False swearing, &c to be perjury.

IV. And be it enacted, That any false affidavit or affirmation made under the provisions of the foregoing section shall subject the party making it to all the pains and penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury.