Health Service

At the request of "Buzz" Kerr, President of the Student's Council, we print Section 2 of the article concerning the Students Health Service. Owing to the number of queries about this relatively unknown organization, it is felt that publication would be timely.

2. The service provides for the following:

- (a) A medical examination at the beginning of each session.
- (b) X-ray examination of the chest each session.
- (c) Medical service for minor ailments at the Dalhousie Public Clinic from twelve noon to one p.m. daily, except Sundays.
- (d) Such medicines (except antitonic sera, Insulin or other unusual preparations) and dressings as may be prescribed.
- (e) A free clinic for immunization against diphtheria, scarlet fever and smallpox (vaccination) is held every Wednesday at 2.00 p.m. at the Dalhousie Public Health Clinic.
- (f) A student who is too ill to attend the noon clinic, or, if taken ill in the afternoon or evening may call any doctor practising in Halifax or Dartmouth. If a student wishes advice in the matter of selecting a doctor he should telephone the Students Health Service, 3-8348 (9 a.m.)—5 p.m. daily except Sunday), or the Dalhousie Public Health Clinic, 2-3363 (at any hour). He will be furnished with a list of doctors who are willing to attend students for the minimum fee suggested by the Medical Society of Nova Scotia. At the conclusion of the doctor's attendance, the student should pay the doctor, obtain a receipted bill stating the number of visits made and the diagnosis of the illness, and then present the receipt to the Director of the Student's Health Service. The student will be reimbursed by the University Business Manager at the rate of two dollars per visit, with a limit of five dollars for each illness. Veterans enrolled in the University are receiving benefits from the Department of Veterans of these benefits. The doctors attending them should render their accounts to the D. V. A.

Hospitalization.

If required to enter any hospital for observation or treatment a student, on discharge from the hospital, should present the receipted bill to the Director of the Students' Health Service, who will forward it to the Business Manager. The student will be reimbursed at the rate of three dollars per diem for each day in hospital, to the extent of five days.

Students are advised that the public ward rate at the Victoria General Hospital is three dollars per diem, which includes medical and surgical attendance, medicines, dressings, laboratory tests and X-rays.

How would you spend a million dollars?

I'd buy some candy, some funny books, and spend the rest foolishly.—Patty MacLeod.

I'd give it all to Dalhousie for scholarships.—Ralph Garson.

I'd give it all to The Gazette so they have a better paper.—Peggy Preston.

Well, ah,—no, I wouldn't do that either.—Dave Pigot.

We'd buy a first hand flea with a diamond studded saddle and go on a trip to the North Pole.—Foo Grant and Jane Cox.

I'd get it all in one dollar bills and see how high a pile they'd make.—Pat Brodeur.

I'd buy three Cadillacs, a yacht, a South Sea island, and live in perpetual drunkenness.—Fred Cowan.

I'd buy a skating rink for STUDENTS.—Jim Keating.

I'd build a radio and TV station on the Dal campus.—Martin Smith.

I won't tell.—Edeanor Woodside.
 One whole set of Mickey Spillane books, and stay home from lab all week to read them.—Shirreff Hall ground floor girls.

I'd build a respectable million dollar compost pile on the Dal campus.—Jim Smith.

It's not fit for publication.—Irwin Nudelman.

I'd take the shortest road to Hollywood, find Marilyn Monroe, and go with her on a south Pacific excursion.—Wilf Crouse.

I'd buy an escalator for Forrest Building.—Vicki Xidos.

I'd invest it at 10% interest and retire.—Ron Stevenson.

And Gus would like to add that Jean Vincent's column (q.v.) is not the only one that suffers at the hands of some unknown power. Gus has the same trouble, and you may have noticed his absence last week. Dreamer, aren't I?

A CHARMING THEORY, BUT ..

The faculty at Wheaton College, Ill., has turned down a student council proposal which would permit unlimited class cuts. The vote was close.

Supporters of the plan felt unlimited cuts would give students a healthier attitude toward classes; they cited statistics indicating good attendance records at schools having unlimited cuts.

But the opposition declared that all this was "more theoretical than anything else." The plan, according to the dean, will not be discussed again this year.

CRIME, PUNISHMENT AND TREATMENT

Two students at Ohio State University have been suspended for attempting to steal final examination questions.

At Michigan State, college officials have decided not to press charges against a student involved in a series of campus thefts, on the theory that "he needs treatment instead of punishment."

The student stole articles having a total value of $5,800, including $4,000 worth of photographic equipment.

THE VOTE FOR 18-YEAR OLDS?

Senator James H. Duff (R. Pa.) said last week that 18-year-olds should be permitted to vote in every state. He was interviewed by four college students on "Junior Press Conference" televised over ABC-TV.

"If a boy is old enough to risk his life for his country," he said, "he should be permitted to vote. It has been my experience that, by and large, the 18-year-old is just as wise as people in other age brackets."

The movement to lower the voting age has already received support from segments of the college press and from various student organizations. The National Student Association, in a recent meeting of its executive committee, voted to "put its enthusiastic support behind the movement."

At Minnesota, a bill to lower the voting age to 18 years has been introduced in the state legislature. Supporters of the bill say it has "better than a 50-50 chance of passing."

"Junior Press Conference" originates in Philadelphia at 1.30 p.m. every Sunday. Begun last October, its contract has just been renewed for another 13 weeks.

THE DRAFT: "AN APPRAISING EYE" TOWARD COLLEGES

Student deferments may not be here to stay, according to Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director.

"The time for action is almost here," says Hershey. "... Now that the drafting of fathers looms as an imminent necessity in the not so distant future, 'we certainly must look toward the colleges with something more than an appraising eye.'"

Draft boards are already beginning to dip down into the 19-year-old group, and it appears inevitable that at least some college students will be deprived of deferments.

The Daily Reveille, Louisiana State University, recently ran a cartoon depicting a hunter, labelled "Selective Service," aiming his rifle at a bird labelled "College Deferments." The caption was, "Dead Duck."
