Dear Dick:

I think you know that I have been carrying on a row with the Canadian Press. The correspondence is interesting and I can assure you the Canadian Press champions have had a rather bad time of it. I am writing only to let you know what has been going on, knowing that you will say nothing that appears to vindicate this organization. Whatever it has been through these years at points where politics don't count and where they only have to report automobile accidents, etc., it has been nothing but a part of the Liberal machine at Ottawa and is worse now than it ever was.

It might be worth while for me to enclose copy of a letter which I have just dictated to a friend in Manitoba.

Yours truly,

AM/MTA.
