

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

The Cabin	Frontispiece
	FACING PAGE
The vista of the meadow to the new-young Spring	6
But though Short's is the chimney, the mantel and "fixin's" are mine	24
A California forest counts as saplings the full-grown pines of our Northern woods	30
Our horses, long accustomed to the Trail	42
As for . . . fences, they are there in the stand- ing timber waiting to be bodied forth by the crude tools at his command	50
Tuxana	76
Upstream a quarter mile we possess a hundred foot waterfall	80
He is like the gargoyles on the great cathedrals, appro- priate and pleasing	92
Teams of mules haul the large logs in from the woods	120
Near the lower end of the meadow	160
Away back among the chaos of the snow peaks	170
In the heart of the forest	172
The Big Country	184
He falls dutifully in behind	224
We made our computations	254
Old Winter . . . whose twin blades are the Wind and the Snow	278