

104. Scadding—Toronto of Old—Collections and Recollections illustrative of the Early Settlement and Social Life of the Capital of Ontario—8vo, full roan
The writer has done for Toronto what Lemoine has done for Quebec in his "Quebec Past and Present."
105. Debates of the House of Commons in 1774 on the Bill for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec—From the Notes of Sir Henry Cavendish
An invaluable memoire pour servir for the student of Canadian history.
106. Howse—A Grammar of the Cree Language, with which is combined an Analysis of the Chippeway Dialect.
107. Merivale—Lectures on Colonization and Colonies, delivered at Oxford by Herman Merivale
A very scarce book. "Though not all that can be desired, this is certainly the most complete and best work on the subject in the English language."—McCulloch.
108. Hyak Nin Is'shiu—Japanese Lyrical Odes translated into English, with Explanatory Notes—The text in Japanese and Roman characters—By T. H. Dickins—With a full index
109. MacDougall—Modern Warfare as Influenced by Modern Artillery
110. Statement respecting the Earl of Selkirk's Settlement upon the Red River in North America—Its Destruction in 1815 and 1816, and the Massacre of Governor Semple and his Party—London, 1817
Extremely rare.
111. Simpson—Narrative of a Journey Round the World during the years 1841 and 1842—By Sir George Simpson—2 volumes
Written by the late able and energetic Governor of the Hudson Bay Company.
112. OLD FRENCH LAW—Domat—Les Lois Civiles dans leur Ordre Naturel—Par M. Domat, Avocat du Roi—Folio—Paris, 1767
113. OLD FRENCH LAW—Actes de Notoriété donnés au Chatelet de Paris, avec des Notes—Quarto—Paris, 1769
114. OLD FRENCH LAW—A second copy of above
115. May—The History of the Parliament of England which began Nov. 3, 1540; with a short and necessary view of some precedent years—By Thomas May, Secretary for the Parliament—Quarto—London, 1812
The great Lord Chatham considers this "a much honester and more instructive book of the period" than that of Lord Clarendon.
116. Algernon Sidney—Discourses concerning Government, to which is added the Paper he delivered to the Sheriff immediately before his death—Folio—London, 1705
One of the earliest treatises against the right divine of Kings. "Read Algernon Sidney. His style reminds you as little of books as of blackguards. What a gentleman he was."—Coleridge.
117. Barry—Observations Historical, Critical and Medical on the Wines of the Ancients—Quarto—London, 1775