

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER V.

- SIR HORATIO GILBERT PARKER, 48
 As an Interpreter of the Northwest—Descent—How Educated—Adopts Teaching—Takes Orders in the Anglican Church—Visit to Australia—His Ontario Curacy—Literary Beginnings—Dramatic Work—Fiction—His Best Known Books—Life in London—Characteristics.

CHAPTER VI.

- SIR WILLIAM CORNELIUS VAN HORNE, 57
 A Great Canadian Benefactor—Construction of the Canadian Pacific—Descended from Dutch Ancestry—Thrown upon his own Resources at an Early Age—Learns Telegraphy—His Rapid Promotion—Made President of the Southern Minnesota Railway—Manager of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul—Becomes Head of the Canadian Pacific—Mental and Physical Qualities—His Varied Interests—Knighted in 1894—Some Side Lights in his Career.

CHAPTER VII.

- ALLAN BRISTOL AYLESWORTH, LL.D., 65
 Birthplace—Precocious Childhood—School and College Days—Elects the Law for a Career—Rapid Rise in his Profession—Association with the Yukon Case—Testimony of the Public Press—Habits of Work—As a Public Speaker—Political Attitude.

CHAPTER VIII.

- REV. CHARLES WILLIAM GORDON, M.A., 71
 The Preacher—Author—Early Environment—Educated at University College, Toronto—Study and Travel Abroad—Contact with Professor Drummond—First Days of Ministry—Life in the Northwest—Enters Field of Literature—Popularity of his Books—Domestic Life—His Personality.

CHAPTER IX.

- HON. WILLIAM S. FIELDING, 79
 First Impressions—Business Training—Ancestry—Boyhood Life—
 Enters Journalism—Gains Wide Influence—Political Career—Made
 Finance Minister—What he has Accomplished—Some Statistics—Private Life.