Duties to be paid by Importers.

All which Duties shall be paid by the Importer or Importers of such Articles to the Collector or Sub-Collectors of His Majesty's Customs, and shall be collected and secured by the means, and under the regulations and penalties, and in the way and manner, hereinafter provided.

Timber, Lumber, &c. previous to entry to be measured as required by Law.

II.—And be it further enacted, that upon the Entry of any Timber, Lumber, or Shingles, subject to Duty by this Act, and which may hereafter be imported into this Island or its Dependencies, the Master or Commander of the Vessel in which such Timber, Lumber or Shingles, may have been imported, shall, before such Vessel shall be cleared at the Customs, produce to the Collector or Sub-Collectors respectively, a certificate from some one of the sworn Surveyors of Lumber appointed by Law, of the true measurement and contents of such Timber, Lumber, or Shingles, respectively.

Duties hereby imposed to be in addition to those previously existing.

III.—And be it further enacted, that the said Duties shall be raised, levied, and exacted, on all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, over and above, and in addition to, the Duty or Duties now raised, levied, or collected on the same articles, under and by virtue of an Act of the Imperial Parliament passed in the third and fourth years of the Reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions abroad," and over and above and in addition to any Duty or Duties now raised, levied, or collected on the same, under or by virtue of any other Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament: and that nothing in this Act contained shall reduce or lessen, or be construed to reduce or lessen, the amount of any such Duty or Duties now received or receivable under the said Acts of the Imperial Parliament, or any of them.

Duties to be in Sterling, and according to Imperial Weights and Measures of July 1825.

IV.—And be it further enacted, that all sums of Money granted or imposed by this Act, either as Duties, Penalties, or Forfeitures, shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be Sterling Money of Great Britain, and that all such Duties shall be paid and received according to British Weights and Measures in use on the Sixth day of July One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty-five, and that in all cases where such Duties are imposed according to any specific quantity, or any specific value, the same shall be deemed to apply in the same proportion to any greater or less quantity or value.

V.—And be it further enacted, that the produce of the Duties received by the means and powers of this Act, shall be accounted for
