

You And Your Kodak Can Help.

Much as pictures mean to you, they mean more, infinitely more, to the soldier in camp or over-seas. Snap-shots of home scenes and home faces, tucked in between the pages of a newsy letter make 'Back home' seem just around the corner of the company street—they are next best to a furlough.

Helpful organizations are doing a great work in looking after the physical comforts of our fighting men—but the "folks at home" are the ones who can keep them cheerful in mind and heart—you and your Kodak can help.

If you have a Kodak, take more pictures and send them to the boys. If you have not yet got one by all means get one the first time you are in town.

We have them at from $8.00 to $65.00.
Brownies from $1.00 up.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS TORONTO.

With receipts of 4058 cattle on the Union Stock Yards market yesterday and a strong and insistent demand for the best class of butcher steers and heifers, the market for this class of cattle was decidedly strong.

For cattle weighing from 1050 lbs. and upwards the market was probably from 15c to 25c per cwt. higher. Light weight cattle, weighing less than 900 lbs., sold at probably from 10c to 25c lower. There was a wider range between the light weight cattle and a good cattle, and the greater percentage of the offerings on the exchange yesterday were of the lighter weight grade.

The demand for butcher cows was very strong and the bull market was steady. There was a strong enquiry for breedy stockers and feeders and with not many of this class of cattle on sale yesterday.

Good quality milkers and springers, especially if the latter were well forward, were in good demand at steady to firm prices with last week.

At the close, considering the heavy run, the market was well cleaned up, though as on almost every day under similar conditions a certain percentage of the cattle were held over in the hope of better trading. Taken all round though, and having in view the abnormal prices it was a great day for the live stock trade.

The calf market was strong and from 25c to 50c higher, and the sheep and lamb trade was good and steady at last week's prices.

The hog trade was weaker, except for the contract animals, which sold for 21c fed and watered, but for the others from $20.00 up was the price generally paid, and packers are quoting considerably lower prices for the balance of the week, but it is questionable if they can carry out any drastic cut such as suggested, but time of course will tell.

Famine For The Enemy.

Famine in enemy countries has reached an acute stage. It is not now a question of doing without the less necessary articles of diet. Luxuries were abandoned long ago, and now the situation is such that bare necessities are scarcely to be had except in portions insufficient to sustain vitality. The people were encouraged during the drive on Russia by the promise that great herds of grain in the Russian wheat regions would be obtained for German consumption. Not only has this promise failed, but the expectations of grain from Roumania have been equally disappointing. None of the eastern countries have had more grain than they actually required, and the threat of the Germans to take the peasants' supplies has led in Ukraine and elsewhere to the destruction of the supplies by their owners, and even the plowing up of growing crops rather than have them fall into German hands.

The disappointment in Germany, and particularly in Austria, is very keen. Germany in her usual selfish way has been trying to deprive Austria of what little supplies are to be had there, with the result of bitter and desperate feeling such as has broken into riots at Prague and other places. It is stated that in Vienna the hunger of the people has even been so fierce that a case of cannibalism has been under investigation. It is certain that the circus animals in Hagenbach's collection have been eaten, and dogs and horses are regarded as valuable commodities of diet.

"A good deal of the trouble of this world arises from the fact that some folks like to have gardens, while others prefer to have hens."

It is reported that two young farmers of near Neustadt, who were called in the new draft, have left for parts unknown, and refuse to report for service.

The Russians gave up Sebastopol to the Germans without a fight. This great Russian fortress withstood the assault of the combined forces of France and England for 11 months in the Crimean War of 1854 to 1856. But that was when patriotism was not extinct in Russia. Todleben who engineered the fortifications of Sebastopol was not in the purchasable class like Lenine and Trotsky.

There are thirty men in the United States whose annual income exceeds $20,000,000. They have all to pay an income tax of 63%. Jno. D. Rockefeller pays into the Govt. Treasury this year $38,400,000; Henry C. Frick, $7,160,000, and Andrew Carnegie $6,400,000. Carnegie should welcome the tax as a means for the accomplishment of his purpose to die poor. That's the kind of touch the millionaires of Canada should get. It would be a greater revenue raiser than an additional tax on matches.
