BLACKWOOD & CO.'S HIGHLY IMPROVED WRITING & COPYING INKS!

JUST RECEIVED, and for Sale by the Subscriber:—
100 dozen, Assorted Sizes, of BLACKWOOD'S HIGHLY IMPROVED WRITING and COPYING INKS.
CAMPBELL BRYSON,
Bookseller and Stationer,
24, Francois Xavier Street.
Montreal, June 10, 1851. 356

Subjoined is one of the numerous testimonials with which the proprietors have been favored from parties residing in Liverpool and the neighborhood, where these Inks were originally introduced:—

Extract from the British Army Despatch, March 29th, 1851.

BLACKWOOD & Co.'s INK-BOTTLES.—This is decidedly the age of inventions. Man's genius seems ever on the stretch to fashion something new: something that will supersede and cast into shade for ever what our forefathers acknowledged as permanently staple, and never dreamt of improving. Among the multiplicity of needful adjuncts to our comfort which refinement has rendered necessary, how many trifles, insignificant in themselves, but troublesome by mismanagement, are of necessity resorted to daily, and yet though the inconvience experienced by the ill-fashioning of the article is loudly commented on, how oft'n is a rectifying principle is attempted. It is not every one who would turn their attention to the manufacture of an ink-bottle, and yet we may venture to assert, that not one of our readers but has at some period stained their fingers and their garments with the sombre liquid, through difficulty in pouring it forth from the awkwardly rounded mouthed jars in which this particular substance has been vended from time immemorial. At all events, we can answer for ourselves, and many a malediction have we uttered on the stone bottles, impervious to the most searching scrutiny of entailing on the person extracting the contents an almost certain emersion in a color anything but fashionable or generally regarded as improved dip for a lady's fingers. To rectify this abominable nuisance, Messrs. Blackwood & Co. have invented an ink-bottle, elegant in form, yet extremely simple in construction, which wholly obviates the annoyance complained of. This capital article can be procured at any price, and from the smallest to whatever size may be required, and as the bottles are constructed of glass as well as others of a more durable material, the evils we have enumerated can readily be guarded against. "There is a time for all things," we are told, and assuredly the obnoxious stone ink-bottles have had their day; and in brief time, when Messrs. Blackwood's patent becomes more generally known, the ancient receptacles for the "dingy fluid" will be numbered among the inventions of a by-gone age.

LIVERPOOL, 1851.

We beg to bear testimony to the excellent quality of your Writing and Copying Inks. The latter gives us great satisfaction, and, as respects its fluidity and copying qualities, is equal, if not superior, to any we have ever used. We need hardly say that your new description of bottles cannot but be considered an immense advantage to all who use them.

Yours, very respectfully,
PETER LEICESTER & Co.

CANTON HOUSE.

FAMILY TEA, COFFEE AND SUGAR WAREHOUSE,
No. 109, Notre Dame Street.

SAMUEL COCHRAN invites the attention of Customers to his stock of TEAS and COFFEES, which have been selected with the greatest care, and on such terms as allow him to offer them at unusually low prices.

The MACHINERY on the Premises, worked by a Four Horse Power Steam Engine, for Roasting and Grinding Coffee, is on the most approved plan, the Coffee being closely confined in polished metal spheres, which are constantly revolving and oscillating in heated air chambers, by preventing imbibing moist from the atmosphere, and thereby increasing the Aroma and loss of Aroma, so important to Consumers, which is further ensured by attention to Grinding of the shortest time prior to Sale. To this elaborate process SAMUEL COCHRAN owes the high reputation his Coffee has obtained through a large portion of the Provinces.

CRYSTALIZED SUGAR (much admired for Coffee) REFINED SUGAR in small loaves, and WEST INDIA SUGARS, of the best qualities, always on hand.

A few of the choicest selections of TEAS may be had at the CANTON HOUSE, in Native Country Packages, unrivalled in flavor and perfume, at moderate terms.

Families residing distant from Montreal will have their orders scrupulously attended to, and forwarded with despatch.
