WILL.
There is no chance, no destiny, no fate.
The firm resolve of a determined soul.
Can circumvent or hinder or control.
Gifts count for nothing; will alone is great.

All things give way before it; soon or late,
What obstacles can stay the mighty force.
Of the sea-seeking river in its course.
Or cause the ascending orb of day to wait?

Each well-born soul must win what it deserves.
Let the foot-plate of luck. The fortune-teller.

Is he whose earnest purpose never swerves.
Whose slight action or inaction serves.
The one great aim:
Why even Death stands still.
And waits an hour sometimes for such a will.

Miss Jennie Biggar, Mt. Pleasant, is visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. Walter Boddy has gone to Port Dover to remain a few weeks on business.

Mrs. Cook and Miss Mildred Cook, Brant avenue, are sojourning at Atlantic City.

Miss Sunny who was the guest of Mrs. Anthony Vanwestrum left to-day for Chicago.

Mrs. Schell of New York, is the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. R. S. Schell, Brant avenue.

Mrs. Herbert Biggar, Mt. Pleasant, was a week-end guest of Mrs. C. L. Messecar, Sheridan street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kippax and Miss Helen Kippax left on Tuesday to spend a few weeks in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jennings, who were the guests of Mrs. George Watt, St. Paul's avenue returned to Toronto on Thursday.

Mrs. Ramsay spent Friday in Hamilton with her sister, Mrs. Ferguson who is making a good recovery after her recent severe illness.

A party of ladies came to town by trolley from Paris on Tuesday to attend Mrs. Geo. Watt's tea. They included Mesdames Finnimore Temple.

The Hon. Harry and Donald Howard, grandsons of Lord Strathcona, are making their debut into Anglo-Canadian life. They have been nominated for membership in the Canada club, being proposed by their father, Dr. R. J. B. Toward.

Invitations have been issued by the members of the Junior Hospital Aid to a Daffodil tea to be held at the residence of Mrs. Bruce Gordon, 7 Church street from 3 until 6 o'clock, Tuesday, March 24th. A sale of articles and especially daffodils will be to the fore for the benefit of the cause.

THE LORNETTE GLASS FOR THEATRE USE.

The woman who has to use distance glasses, or glasses for concentrated vision, has her special lenses set in a lorgnette which swing from a sautoir of black ribbon in very smart style. The short-handled lorgnette, resembling when closed a monocle of the most fashionable type; and the black sautoir should pass through slides of gold or silver to have the best effect. Note the theatre costume; and the woman who can handle a lorgnette gracefully has an extra coquetry at her command.

Mrs. George Watt St. Paul's Ave., spent Thursday in Toronto.

Miss Montzambert who has spent a few weeks in New York will arrive home to-day.

Mrs. Adam Beck who is at present at her country home in England will return to Canada in April.

Mrs. W. L. Creighton and Mrs. H. W. Fitton left Wednesday to sojourn in Atlantic City and New York.

Miss VanNorden attended the dinner of the Toronto Women's Press Club, which was held at the King Edward hotel last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James W. Digby and Miss Dolly Digby spent Thursday in town. They will be in residence in their old home in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Watson, who have occupied Mrs. Digby's house during her absence, have taken the house on St. Paul's avenue at present occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George Watt.

Mr. Bertram Boddy, Toronto, was a week-end visitor at the parental home on Charlotte street.

During his stay in town Rev. Prof. Cosgrove was the guest of Venerable Archdeacon and Mrs. Mackenzie at the Rectory, Alston street.

After Easter a play, "A Night in Dreamland" will be given under the auspices of the Brant Daughters of the Empire. Mr. J. Wellington from Euston, Pa., will be here to manage the entertainment of which due notice will be given later.

During her visit in town, Miss Mackenzie of the Y.W.C.A., Hamilton, said that the "Y" in the Ambitious City, was being enlarged and when completed it would be seven stories high. Miss Mackenzie is largely responsible for the progress and organization of the institution, that has now a wide field of usefulness under her able management.

Many friends sympathize with Miss Eulalie Buchanan in the sudden calling home of her mother, Tuesday, at her residence Hart street. The late Mrs. Buchanan was a charming and cultured woman, who had travelled extensively, with her late year, who was for years private secretary to Li Hung Chang. Miss Buchanan leaves next week for Washington with her brother, Mr. Buchanan, who is in the U. S. navy, at a naval station near the capital.

How Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Mrs. Lance.

Pembroke Woman Suffered For Fifteen Years Before She Found Quick Relief and a Complete Cure. PEMBROKE, Ont., Mar. 20.—(Special).—Of peculiar interest to women is the story of the cure of Mrs. Morrie Lance, well known and highly respected here. Let Mrs. Lance tell that story in her own words.

"For about fifteen years I was a very sick woman," she says, "My sleep was broken and unrefreshing and I had a bitter taste in my mouth in the morning. I was often dizzy and flashes of light floated before my eyes. My limbs were heavy and I had a dragging across my loins."

"At last Rheumatism was added to my troubles and I also suffered from lumbago, dropsy and gravel. I felt that my kidneys were the cause of all my troubles and decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. From almost the first they did me good, and after taking twelve boxes I am again a well woman."

Women who suffer should learn that the cause of their troubles is bad kidneys. Having learned that, the rest is easy. Thousands of Canadians will tell you out of their own experience that Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure bad kidneys.

Mrs. H. M. Breeden has issued invitations to a dance to be held in the Conservatory of Music on the evening of Easter Monday, April 13th.

Mrs. John Rennie, Rosedale, Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Ogilvie, Pearl street. Mr. Rennie will arrive to-day to be a week end visitor.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Watt entertained at a most enjoyable high tea given for assistants at the tea of the afternoon. At four tables they played bridge. Miss L. Large and Mr. C. A. Popplewell were highest score.

The Toronto Women's Press Club held their annual meeting and dinner at the King Edward Hotel on Tuesday evening. Mrs. J. W. Garvin presiding. Miss Marshall Saunders, formerly of Halifax and Miss VanNorden were guests of honor. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Edith Macdonald; vice-president, Miss Mary Houston; secretary, Miss Louise Mason; treasurer, Miss Mona Cleaver; executive, Miss Weaver, Miss Marshall Saunders, Mrs. J. E. Elliott, Miss Estelle err Miss Mariorie Dyas, and Miss Hyslop. Miss Macdonald, who is at present in New York, was sent a wire announcing her election as president.

The Officers' quarters at the Armouries were en fête yesterday, when the Military Chapter Dufferin Rifles I. O. D. E. were at home when a largely attended and successful tea was held for the benefit of the Order. Mrs. F. A. Howard, Mrs. H. Genet, and Mrs. R. H. Palmer received. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was the piano solo rendered by Miss Gretchen Dunstan, with taste and feeling, as well as Miss White's sympathetic singing, added to the pleasure of the interesting function. The table was effectively arranged with red and green, the colors of the regiment, crimson carnations and ferns forming a lovely color scheme. The soldiers of the King dropped in at the tea-hour for a cup of the favorite brew, added of course to the pleasure of the very pleasant tea.

Mrs. John Rennie of Toronto, was the raison d'être of two delightful entertainments given for her by Mrs. J. A. Ogilvie, Pearl street. The rooms on Wednesday at the tea hour were prettily arranged with flowers and many came and went during the afternoon to meet the guest of the hostess. Mrs. Ogilvie wearing a handsome gown of black satin, with touches of rose and Mrs. John Rennie in a Paris gown of black Chantilly lace received with the hostess. The spacious rooms were fragrant with numbers of Killarney roses, which were arranged about them. The small tables for high tea were lovely with carnations, violets and daffodils. Later in the evening they played bridge at seven tables. Mrs. Rennie, Ferguson and Mrs. (Dr.) Ross of Hamilton were highest scores.

It was indeed very interesting to hear Mr. Laurence Irving (England's youngest and greatest actor-manager) give a talk in the Collegiate, Thursday afternoon on "The Drama as a factor in social life." The entertainment which was under the auspices of the Brant Chapter Daughters of the Empire, was largely attended and obviously much appreciated by those present. The gifted actor of poetic imagination, artistic ideals and fine diction as he sketched the drama from ancient Greece down through the ages, showed what a power for good it was and is. The lecture was listened to with rapt attention and admiration. At the close, Mrs. Gordon Smith, 2nd Vice Regent, thanked Mr. Irving on behalf of the Brant Chapter I. O. D. E. for his kindness and courtesy in addressing the meeting. The motion was seconded by Mrs. A. D. Hardy.

Mrs. George Watt, wearing a handsome gown of blue satin, gave a delightful and largely attended tea at her residence, St. Paul's Avenue, Tuesday afternoon. Flowers were prettily arranged in the drawing room, where Mrs. R. R. Jennings wearing her lovely wedding gown of ivory charmeuse draped with shadow lace, received with the hostess, Mrs. Ramsay and Mrs. F. A. Popplewell were kept busy showing guests to the tea room, where the table was exceedingly pretty, centered with a large bunch of shamrocks and bloom. A pleasant feature was meeting a number of Paris ladies who were present. Miss J. R. Waterhouse and Mrs. F. D. Reville, in smart gowns, poured tea and coffee, assisted by a bevy of charming girls, Miss Lottie Large, Miss Sadie Scarie, Miss Norah Wallace, Miss Dorothy Wilkes, Miss Emily Bunnell, Miss Marjory Wilkes.

The local council of women are very this afternoon entertaining at a talent tea from 3 to 6 o'clock in the club rooms of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Livingston, the president, and Mrs. Philip Buck, 1st vice-president, are hostesses, Mrs. Cummings, Nelson, honorary president, Mrs. A. D. Hardy, are presiding at the tea and coffee table. The president of all the affiliated societies in town are co-operating with the council at the tea. They are represented by Mrs. T. H. Preston, 2nd vice-president, Mrs. A. D. Hardy, 3rd vice-president, Mrs. T. H. Jones, 4th vice-president, Mrs. Gordon Smith, 5th vice-president, with Miss L. Jones as corresponding secretary and Miss L. Carlyle recording secretary and Miss Hollinrake, treasurer. Members of the various societies

FRIENDS OF PRESIDENT'S YOUNGEST DAUGHTER HEAR SHE WILL WED SEC'Y OF TREASURY M'ADOO

Prospects of another White House wedding became more definite recently when the persistent renewal of the report that the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. William M. McAdoo, and Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of President and Mrs. Wilson, were engaged, the marriage to take place in June.

There was no announcement from the White House, and when the attention of officials was drawn to the report they refrained from making any comment or denial.

Mr. McAdoo himself said it would be indelicate for him to comment on the subject one way or the other. Nevertheless, official Washington is taking it as a definite fact that another White House wedding will be solemnized in June after the adjournment of Congress.

Love laughs at locksmiths everywhere and in some places it turns up its nose at eugenics.

Do not always judge by appearances. Sometimes the girl with a kodak smile has a cartoon temper.

Maybe you have also noticed that the kind of men who start new religions have never experienced the old.

Moreover the kind of young woman who is proud of her ability to judge cocktails is not very good at tempering the baby's bath.

Sometimes when we see pictures of a society girl in the flashy Sunday newspapers we have to read the underlines before we can tell whether she is dressed for the tango or undressed for the tub.—Dallas News.

Many things have combined to place Miss Billington at the head of the women journalists of to-day and not the least is her careful attention to detail, her accuracy and absolute reliability. Miss Billington is exceedingly womanly and interest in all things. She knows the world at large and social conditions too well to think that unfettered violence will ever bring about a millennium. Miss Billington is the eldest child and only daughter of the late Rev. G. H. Billington, M.A., who for over forty years was rector of Chalbridge Dorsetshire. Her mother was a charming and lovable personality, gifted with a keen and delightful sense of humor. Mary Billington never intended to stop at the recording of fashions and social events. Her ambitions from the outset ran to first class special correspondence and that she has attained on some of the best papers in the Empire.

SKILL AT PINOCCHLE CAPTURES A BRIDE

PHILADELPHIA March 19.—Wm. E. Diener is back running his elevator after having eloped to Baltimore last week with Miss Margaret A. Getz, 36 years of age. Diener is 25 years of age.

"No I won't say anything about our marriage," he said "We were married and that is all there is to it."

Diener lives with his mother at 2554 South Darien street. He slipped away with Miss Getz without informing any of his friends or relatives. The bride is said to be worth nearly $20,000, and to be one of the largest real estate owners in the southern section of the city. She also is interested in the coal business.

According to friends of the two, Diener met his wife about a year ago. Pinocchle games were played every night he called at her home, and several weeks ago Diener asked Miss Getz to marry him. His skill at the game seemed to have captured Miss Getz and she consented.

"I do not believe that it was my son who was married," said Mrs. Diener, the young man's mother. "He told me that it was probable some practical joke one of his friends had played on him."

MISS WILSON SHOWS ENGAGEMENT RING

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The engagement ring of Miss Eleanor Wilson is in strong contrast to that of her sister, Jessie, now Mrs. Sayre. Mr. McAdoo's choice for his fiancée is a large diamond solitaire, set in platinum. The stone weighs about 4-1/2 carats and it is blue white. It is set in prongs surrounded by an elaborate and delicate filigree studded with small diamonds on each side of the solitaire. Miss Wilson has shown her ring to all her friends.

Mr. McAdoo takes tea at the White House every day when his fiancée is at home. Mrs. Wilson and her daughters have made it a rule to receive their friends at the tea hour always by appointment since they went to the White House.

The friends of the president and of the secretary of the treasury are busy making dates for entertaining the bride and bridegroom-elect, but as yet none of these has been disclosed.

There is a report that the Grand Trunk Pacific will seek further assistance from the Government probably in the form of a loan, estimated variously at from ten to twenty-five millions.
