He became a member of the Borden Cabinet, as minister without portfolio, following this election, enterprises, and is one of the best and upon the resignation of Sir Sam known of Canadian business men. Hughes was named Minister of Militia. Sir Albert has been prominent in local social circles, and is a mem-ber of the board of regents, Victoria College. He is a Methodist and re-sides on Castle Frank Crescent, Rosedale. He is a member of the Toronto Club, the Albany Club and the York Club, of Toronto, and of the Rideau Club, Ottawa.

Sir William Hearst.
The knighting of Hon. W. H. Hearst is a recognition not alone of his high place as Prime Minister of but of the splendid patriotic world he has been carrying on from the head of the government of Ontario When Mr. Hearst became Prime Minister he set politics into the back ground and his every effort since has been directed to strengthening in every way possible the sinews of Empire. By his personal example and through what he has been able to accomplish as leader of the government, particularly the establishing at Orpington of the great Ontario Military Hospital, he has given the lead to the people of the province in patriotic earnestness.

Hon. W. H. Hearst, from the time he entered the Legislature in 1908 has moved ahead with rapid strides. During the life of one Legislature he sat as a private member for Sault Ste. Marie. Following the reciprocity election of 1911 that plac-ed the Borden government in power and took Hon. Frank Cochrane to Ottawa, Mr. Hearst was called into the Whitney Cabinet as Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines. That he was able, in the next four years, to prove his worth so thoroughly that on the death of Sir James Whitney, though junior member of the gov-
