The Most Luxurious Auto

Ever built was for the personal use of the Kaiser and was built in Germany. Just before the war broke out it was sent to England to be fitted with an English body. The car has been in the hands of the body-builders ever since it was finished, and recently was ordered sold by the courts to satisfy their charges. A Danish ship owner bought the car for thirty-five thousand dollars.

A Second Letter from a Lakeville Soldier in Hospital.

Letter from Barry Clarke to his mother Mrs. Marchant Clarke, Lakeville.

My Dear Mother:—

Will write a few lines to let you know I am getting along well, have not been out of bed yet, but hope to get up in a few days, the ankle is not so sore and does not pain me much now. Have not had a letter now for four weeks, so of course I am thinking of home, but hope you are all well. I have not heard from Keith.

Had a visit last Thursday from the lady representing the Canadian Red Cross, she took my name and sent me a bag of comforts, just got it this morning consists of shaving set, hair brush, tooth brush and powder, soap and some paper and envelopes, some of the latter are stamped so are very handy just at present.

Think I told you in my last letter about the lady visitor I had. She came again on Sunday and brought her daughter, although the latter is married, but they talked to me about an hour and left me a cake, a jar of home made currant jam, some eggs and apples and oranges, then again yesterday she sent me some oranges and apples, some were Ben Davis but they tasted good. So mother you see I am faring well so far, she has also invited me to her house when I am able to get about. They say I will be transferred to a Convalescent Hospital when I am able to move around, then perhaps to Canada. I am certainly living in hopes of the war being over before I have to go back.

Now mother I could write a lot about it, but it would not do any good, so will wait until I get back to tell you. It is enough to say that I am not so anxious to go over again as I was the first time.

There is nothing more to write this time, am so anxious to hear from you again, I wrote to the battalion for my mail to be sent over, so perhaps I will get some of it, I have plenty of books and papers to read, but that is not like a letter from home.

Will close for this time, hoping to hear from you soon.

Love to all from,
Barry.

Mr. Ernest Barrs, invalided home from Europe to Wolfville, was visiting at Hantsport last week.
