Freshness

Is something absolutely necessary in groceries, especially in the summer. That's one thing we are most particular about in our canned salmon. They must be first quality and fresh.

Convention. "I was speaking with Principal Brackin, of McKeough school, who is also the president of the Teachers' Association," said Dr. A. W. Thornton to The Planet this morning, "and I suggested to him the advisability of adding to the annual teachers' convention department for the trustees of the different Public schools. "Each year the teachers all through Kent meet in convention for the purpose of talking over the best methods by which to regulate their school work. In this way they are able to interchange different ideas which they find help them materially in the performance of their duties.

"Now, there is no doubt of the fact that a convention of trustees would be every bit as beneficial to the trustees as the teachers' conventions are to the teachers. In this way they would be able to discuss the different modes of governing schools and I think that out Public school system would receive great benefit from such

"Mr. Brackin expressed his hearty approval of the plan and intimated that it was a scheme which he has long had in mind. He intends to push the matter as far as lies in his power, and will probably arrange it so that the trustees will meet at the next teachers' convention."

The members in question, are the finiest elephants in all the world and are scarcely as large as an ordinary pony. They are considered to be the lend. Prof. Gentry imported them from India last winten at an enormous land. Prof. Gentry imported them from India last winter at an enormous cost. They are more valuable than ordinary elephants on account of their size. They all possess superb dispositions, and are great friends of the children, who will all have an opportunity of having a ride on them and getting thoroughly acquainted during the show's stay in this city.

GENERAL MANAGER OF G. T.

Port Huron, Mich., Aug. 27.—It is reported here that the rumored change in the management of the Grand Trunk railway system, when effected, will not find Chas. M. Hays back in charge of the affairs of that road, as has been predicted in some quarters. While General Manager Reeve is desirous of retiring from the burdensome position, it is said the directors of the road are not seriously contemplating again offering the management to Mr. Hays, believing that they had not been fairly treated by him in his resigning to accept the offer of the Southern Pacific. The man most likely to succeed Mr. Reeve, should the change be made, is be-lieved to be Frank B. Morse, at present assistant manager and superintendent of motive power, Mr. Morse came from the Wabash road several years ago and has made an excellent record. He is now the youngest general officer on the system. MCKEE THE FAVORITE.

The leaders of the North Essex Liberais will call a convention about September 15 to select a candidate to contest the riding in the next provincial elections.
