LAUNCH GUESTS WILL BE EDITED

Roosevelt Says the Nation
Must be Responsible for Prince Henry's Safety.

New York Naval Militia, 500
Strong Will Act as Special
Guard for the Party.

New York, Feb. 5.—Wallace W. Downey, member of the firm which is building Emperor William's yacht, has returned from a conference with President Roosevelt. The President is said to have asked particularly about the arrangements as to the crowds at the launching.

He is said to have told Mr. Downey that Prince Henry is to be the guest of the nation and that the nation will be responsible for his safety. For that reason great care is imperative in editing the list of guests and seeing that no one not vouched for by a responsible person shall be permitted to attend.

Mr. Downey has had charge of all the arrangements for the launching and all the invitations are to be sent from his office. Lists are to be furnished him by the German embassy, the President and Mayor Low. In addition to the names on these lists the firm will invite a number of friends and fellow shipbuilders. Every name must be vouched for by the secret service bureau at Washington. (No name not vouched for in the most satisfactory manner will be allowed to remain on the list.)

The New York naval militia, 500 strong, will act as special guard for the Prince and the President for the launching. It will be formed in a double line from the pier on which the Prince, President Roosevelt and the launching party will land, and through the line the party will march to the launching stage to be erected under the bow of the Meteor.

A large force of secret service men from Washington, central office men and policemen in uniform also will be on duty. A squad of secret service men representing all foreign nations also will be present to see that no crank is permitted to get near the prince. These latter officials, the leading men in their line of work in the greatest European capitals, will, it is stated, accompany the prince on his tour of the country.

WHEW !!

Several City Romancers who
All got Going at Once—
The Dire Results.

Supt. Jones was in a thoughtful mood this morning as he sat in the office of the secretary of the Waterworks dept. He had just been talking to an old volunteer fireman, one of those men who, as the superintendent expressed it, could "draw a long bow pretty good." This is the story the ancient fireman told—

"It was a cold winter in the early days of Chatham that a fire broke out on King street. I was handling one branch, but the weather was so cold that the column of water froze solid from the muzzle of the hose up in the air 75 feet. That was astonishing enough, but ladders being scarce one of the other firemen sealed that column of ice and took a line of hose to the top of the building." Such was the story that had made Supt. Jones thoughtful.

"I remember the time well," said Supt. Jones, "that the residence of Lawyer Maclean was burned. It stood on Wellington street west, where the house now occupied by Mrs. Wemp stands. The fire was early in the morning before daylight. We had the engine down on the ice at the foot of First street. A little spray of water was leaking from the fire engine and soon my coat was coated with ice. By the time I returned to the fire hall I was encased in ice an inch thick. The water had frozen as soon as it struck me, so I didn't feel cold, but the ice had to be broken with an axe before I could take my coat off. That is the only time I remember that I had to get some one to break the ice for me."

Will Coupland had listened patiently to this story when he too added his tale as follows—

"I was passing on William street and saw, between Hadley's and Jamieson's, a farmer just beginning to load manure. The top was frozen hard and as soon as the man removed it a cloud of steam that had been held shut in arose in a cloud. The wind wafted the cloud down towards where I was. It no sooner got out on the street, out of the prohibition afforded by the two buildings, than the vapor turned to snow and I was enveloped in a miniature snow storm."

It was at this point that the liar aroused himself and said—"Monday morning was very cold as you all know. When I was going down town I noticed that John Glassford had dumped his coal ashes out in the snow. It was early, about 7:30, and I was surprised that Jack had been up so early. Among the ashes had been one live coal. It had thawed some of the snow and the steam that had risen had frozen and stood up in the air in the shape of a pyramid."

This phenomenon was remarkable and only possible under certain conditions, but it wasn't by any means a circumstance to the other peculiar-

The Secret

Of womanly health would be esteemed as priceless by thousands of suffering women. Each month sees them moaning in a darkened room. At the best they endure pain every day. At the worst the pain becomes torment.

The secret of womanly health is in keeping the womanly organism in a perfectly healthy state. This can be done by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There is nothing else "just as good" for womanly ailments.

"I suffered for more than ten years with female weakness of very bad form," writes Mrs. J. M. Wood, of Trenton, N. J. "I used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' with good results. I am able to do all my own work now. I do not know how to thank you enough for the kind advice you have sent me by letter. Your remedies did for me more than all other doctor's medicines, and I have taken lots of them."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.

ity I noticed. The cold was so intense that after the steam had become a frozen cloud, the coal kept alive. The extreme frigidity of the atmosphere compressed it so that it was impossible for the heat in the coal to radiate and the red ember was preserved in its heated state."
