The Provincial Sabbath School Convention will meet in Windsor, October 18th to 20th. Several prominent works or will be present, William Reynolds, of Peoria, Sabbath School International Secretary Ried, Mrs W. F. Crofts of New York, who stands in the vary front rank among primary class teachers, and others about 100 delegates from different parts of the province are expected to attended. Our merchants are getting their fall goods open, and the various dry goods, millinery and furnishing stores in town present a fine appearance. Our merchants are up to the times, and we recommend them to the people of the county generally. There is no need for our people to send to Halifax, 8t, John, Montral or Toronto for their goods when they can get as good value at home and encourage a home industry.
