Biltown.

Rev. A. J. Vincent preached last Sabbath at Biltown and Woodville with much acceptance. He was formerly pastor of this church. His many friends are glad to hear him once more. He is wanted in the United States, but prefers settling in this province if there be an opening.

We are glad to hear that one of our boys, Clarence Minard, has a call to an important city church in New Jersey.

Miss Laura Hudson has recently left for Boston, where she expects to spend the winter with a friend.

Mr. Edward Rockwell is at present very ill. Small hopes are entertained of his recovery.

A Forester's Request.

Readers of the ACADIAN will remember that among those drowned by the loss of the Gypsum Empire last spring was the mate, Mr. J. Edgar Merriam.

Mr. Merriam became a member of Court "Blomidon," I. O. F., shortly before his death, and had paid in all the sum of $5.00 for insurance. Considerable delay has been occasioned by the difficulty in procuring proof of death; but this was completed satisfactorily, and last week the Court had the pleasure of forwarding to Mrs. Merriam a cheque for $1000. The following letter accompanied the cheque:-

To Mrs. Tryphena Merriam:
He whose ways are not ours has in his infinite wisdom thought best to call our brother, your late husband, to the trials and cares of this life, to his eternal home. This and affliction, like many others have done, impresses us with the uncertainty of life, and that we should be prepared for that great change which awaits us all. Many of us had known our late brother but a short time, but that fraternal chain which binds us together in one common family, whose aims are for the good of our fellow men, and for the relief of those who may be near and dear to them, made us deeply interested, and we now desire to convey to you our sincerest sympathy in your sad bereavement. Riches or treasure can do little to heal a broken heart. But in sorrow, as well as joy, the needs of this life are many, and now that the bread winner is gone, we trust that this cheque may in a material way aid in lightening the burden you may be called upon to bear. Please accept this with kindest regards from the members of the Independent Order of Foresters.

Signed in behalf of Court Blomidon, F. M. LOGAN, Chief Ranger, B. O. DAVISON, Chaplain, Wolfville, Nov. 10th, 1898.

Miss Alice V. Anderson, of Sackville, N. B., a former student and later a teacher in Acadia Seminary, and Rev. W. Archibald McLean, B. A., of North Sydney, were married on Wednesday of last week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. Daley, assisted by Rev. J. G. A. Belyea. The bride was attended by Miss Miss A. Read. All the persons named are well known in Wolfville.

Acetylene Gas or Pure Daylight!

Is what the Savoir-Guay Gas Generator Makes.

This is the coming light for Hotels, Churches, School Houses, Stores, etc. Knocks out Electricity, Coal Gas, Oil, etc., for it's light is simply daylight. All shades of color are distinguished by it, and here is the "rub," it only costs 20c per hour for 25 candle power light. All we ask is to come and see it in J. T. Pulsifer's Boot and Shoe Store, F. A. Coffin, Stationery, Fancy Goods, etc., and in E. F. Sweet's Hall and my own Machine Shop, and we know your decision before you tell it. Drop a card any night you decide to come and I will be on hand to explain matters which I have not the space for here. We challenge competition with any known Light or Generator.
