THEY WENT THEIR WAY UNHEED. ING

Once upon a time-more than once, in fact-a merchant stocked his store with fine merchandise in the expectation that the public would come and buy it.

But the public did not come

The merchant was puzzled. He looked at his store and could find no fault with its appearance. He went over his stocl and considered his prices and was certain that both were right. His windows were trimmed, and he knew that his sales clerks were competent and polite.

But the public passed by unheeding. And for days and weeks on end he was eternally asking himself-WHY?

The answer is clear.

He knew his store, He knew his goods

He knew his prices

But Nobody else did.

He neglected to use, with all his skill and judgement at his command, the only means of making known these facts to the widest possible audience.

He neglected his Newspaper Adver tising Is it not amazing that merchants whose whole business depends upon the cultivat ion of a wide local good-will, and who are extraordinarily careful in their buying, are comparitively indifferent when itcome to that most skilful branch of selling-Newspaper Advertising.

Outside of the weekly newspaper man if a man could be found who actually practised the Golden Rule every day he would form the most sensational news item of a dramatically sensational period. And no one would wonder at him more than the average Christian. And yet that kind of a man is supposed to be the product of the Christian code, He is its natural fruit But he is the kind of fruit that is so rare that he would create general amazemen if he were actually discovered .- New Glasgow Enterprise.

Childhood Constipation

Constipation is one of the most comme ailments of childhood and the child suffering from it cannot thrive. To keep the children well the bowels must be kept regular and the stomach sweet. To do this nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative; are absolutely safe and never fail to relieve constipation and indigestion; colds and simple fever. Concerning them Mrs. Jules Fauquereau, Nominingue, Que., writes:--"My baby was terribly con-stipated and suffered day and night. I was advised to give him Baby's Own Tablets and from the first they helped him and now at the age of thirteen months he is a big healthy, happy boy." The tablets a big healthy, happy boy." The tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brodckville, Ont.

THE principles upon which a Bank is founded, the number of years it has been in operation, and the policy followed during these years-these features, combined with its present standing, form the criterion of the strength of a Bank.

The Bank of Montreal began business in the year 1817, with a modest capital of $1,250,000, and for over a century it has followed a conservative-aggressive policy until to-day its capital and reserve fund total $40,000,000 and
