not only prevented my wife from becoming baid, but it also caused an entirely new growth of hair. I am ready to certify to this statement before a justice of the peace."— H. Hulsebus, Lewisburgh, Iowa. H. Huisebus, Lewisnirgh, Iowa.
"Some years ago, after a severe attack of brain fever, my nair all came out. I used such preparations for restoring it as my physicians ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, growth of hair. I then tried, successivery, everal articles recommended by druggists, pd all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The last remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think I growth of hair in a few weeks. I think I asset eight bottles in two years; more than was necessary as a restorative, but I liked it as a dressing, and have continued to use it for that purpose. I believe Ayer's Hair Vigor possesses virtues far above those of any similar preparation now on the market."
