AN ISLAND HERO

P. E. Island Man Gave up Life in Fight for Others in Ontario Fires.

Montreal, July 17—(Canadian Press)—That William J. McLean, of Montreal, a native of Charlottetown, P. E. I., met a hero's death in the fire at Porcupine, is evidenced from the latest reports. His body was found lying by a length of charred hose, to which, as master mechanic of one of the Heineze mines; it was his duty to attend. He was thirty years of age, and was born in Charlottetown, the son of the late T. A. McLean.

The above young man was a step son of the late Mrs. T. A. McLean, formerly Miss Annie Nicholson of Newcastle.

TRIBUTE TO CANADA

PAID BY PAPER IN WESTERN STATES

The Change That Has Been Wrought in Recent Years Calls For Admiration of Neighbors to the South.

Spokane, Wash., July 17—Under the heading, "Canada Has Thrown Aside Her Swaddling Clothes," the Spokesman Review publishes a lengthy editorial, saying in part:—

The Transformation of Canada from a colony to a nation is one of the most interesting and significant facts of modern political history. A decade or two ago Canada's position was anything but pleasant. Her climate had frightened Europeans away. Our Lady of the Snows, as Kipling called her, was regarded as a land dominated by barren winter.

Today this impression no longer misleads the average man, and the hundreds of thousands of emigrants from England and Europe that have settled in Canada during the last ten years have enabled the Canadians to develop the country to such an extent that her products and resources have become famous the world over.

Changed and better conditions in Canada have brought about a marked difference in the Canadian attitude toward the rest of the world. A decade ago Canada moved with the hesitating steps of an infant among the nations of the world. Today she has thrown aside her swaddling clothes and taken her place among the nations of the earth.

Although a color under the British crown, she enjoys a complete autonomy and is free to enter into treaties with other nations in regard to her material welfare. Consequent upon this greater freedom and enlarged horizon the Canadian has become imbued with a spirit of absolute confidence and determined optimism with regard to the country's future.
