The Bull-Eye Shave
The barber of a homeward-bound ransport was trying to impress his old assistant that it was no cinch to shave a man whenever the five-inch gun, mounted directly overhead, went into action. But the dough-boy refused to be impressed.
"Buddy," he said, calmly scraping the face of a squirming victim, "shavin' a guy where them things start from ain't nothin', but it takes nerve when you gotta shave em where they finish."—The American Legion Weekly

Cheaper Gasoline in Great Britain

"Over production in the United States is the reason assigned by British oil companies for an unexpected reduction of six cents a gallon in the price of gasoline in Great Britain. After a sudden increase of 14 cents a gallon in August, according to advices from the United States Chamber of Commerce in London to the department of commerce.
British consumers, however, the chamber reported, attribute the slump to the investigation of the central profiteering committee into the increase in price.

Slump in Fur Means Little Trapping This Winter

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 15—The northern muskrats are looking to a comparatively undisturbed rest in their winter houses this year, for although most of us would feel hurt if we were suddenly informed that we were only worth a tenth of our value a year previously it should be a source of unadulterated joy to the muskrat when his hide was worth $5.00 a very precarious existence, but now that it is down to fifty cents will be more or less ignored.

Last fall trappers flocked into the north country in the hundred lured on by phenomenal price of fur. Many men absolutely ignorant of the habits of furred animals, and equally at sea in the matter of setting traps ventured out on the cold trails, and even the veriest amateur was unfortunate if he did not secure sufficient pelts to more than cover his expenses. This year, however, everything is changed. Fur has taken a terrific slump and as there seems no indication of a rise for some time to come, trappers are turning their attention to some more profitable voca-

WHEN you buy Beaver Flour you obtain flour that is ideal for all baking purposes—flour containing the food value and wondrous richness of the world-famed Ontario Winter Wheat, combined with the strength of Western Hard Wheat.

For 50 years Beaver Flour has been daily proving to Canadian women that it contains the qualities which make bread, pies, cakes and pastries that are real food treats.

Bakings made with Beaver Flour have that light, fine, even texture and crispy, flaky crusts—sought after by all conscientious, good cooks.

Beaver Flour is the old reliable blended flour, used for half a century by thousands of Canadian housewives.

In the early spring this year the slump came, and so suddenly, that few of the traders had an opportunity of unloading, and the majority of them are still holding on to large batches of fur worth only a fraction of the money they paid for it.

Flour Prices Lower For Over Four Years

Minneapolis, Nov. 9—For the first time in almost four years flour sold under the $10 barrel mark at the mills here today. Quotations on family patents broke 35 to 75 cents today, making today's range of prices $9.65 and $10.00 a barrel. Yesterday's sharp decline in wheat was given as the cause.

Flour Price-Down in Calgary
Calgary, Nov. 9—Flour was reduced 80 cents a barrel in Calgary Tuesday morning. Some of the bakers state that the reduction of 80 cents a barrel only represents about one-fifth of a cent in a loaf and for that reason they do not purpose making any reduction so that there would have to be a reduction of about $2.20 a barrel to lower bread prices.

Toronto Firm Makes Tea Cut

A prominent Canadian tea firm with headquarters in Toronto, has announced a cut from seventy cents to fifty-five cents a pound, retail, for one of the popular varieties of tea.

It is said that other tea concerns will probably follow suit. It is explained that there is a glut on the British and Canadian tea markets, owing to the fact that the British merchants have been unable to get their long hoarded stocks in on the Russian markets. It is understood that the Canadian tea firms will have to accept considerable loss as the result of the cut.
