In the House of Commons, on Monday the 6th, Mr. Mills of Annapolis moved his resolution to apply the Ontario and Nova Scotia civil service electoral franchise act to the federal franchise, prefacing his motion with the statement that while he did not believe in disfranchising any British subject, there were special reasons for this retaliatory measure.

had given every man the ballot. Mr. Northrup raised the point that as the liberals had urged the adoption of the provincial lists for federal election purposes, it was for this house to pay close attention to Mr. Mills' proposition.

On Tuesday the budget debate was continued by Sir Richard Cartwright who made a strong bid for the vote of the farmers, who were said unjustly taxed to the benefit of a few protected manufacturers.

assured the house that the I. C. R. this year, as last, had come out with a small surplus. (Renewed applause.) Fires at Halifax and River Du Loup had necessitated heavy expenditures, and it would be necessary to ask for money for these exceptional services.

Replying to Mr. Perry, on Wednesday Hon. Mr. Foster gave a list of the places on the P. E. Island coast, including Carleton Place and Souris, at which the dredge Prince Edward is scheduled to operate this year.

in his charge and denied the truth of one of his phrases, Martin excitedly replied: "I don't care whether it is true or not." In the course of his remarks he said he would like Mr. McCarthy's opinions on constitutional questions long before that of Dr. Bourinot, and asked Mr. Foster if the Manitoba school question was not a party question.

The resumption of the budget debate was delayed till 4.30 Friday afternoon by a lively discussion which arose out of the remarks with which Mr. Davies supplemented his demand that the government should instantly inform the house as to the exact status of the negotiations with Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., advices of the 12th: It is denied that the ministry have received any answer from the Dominion government in reference to the acceptance of their terms for confederation. It is known, however, that they have despatched Colonial Secretary Bond by the steamer Blue for Victoria, N. S., whence he will proceed to Ottawa.

THE opponents of confederation insinuate that he is bound for the United States for the purpose of negotiating a loan of $20,000,000 present obligations, not otherwise provided for. They insist that he can easily obtain the assistance needed from the British Columbia fish merchants and from the western flour and pork dealers, who will loan him valuable money if the confederation measure is adopted.

THE Manitoba school question was the absorbing topic of conversation among the members of Parliament at Ottawa, on Saturday last, and it seemed to be the general opinion that if a compromise is reached it will be on the lines of the Ontario system, with state-guaranteed curriculum, certificated teachers, etc. Much significance is attached to the fact that Archbishop Langevin, who intended to leave Saturday for his western tour, remained at Ottawa at the request of the Premier Greenway and Attorney General Tupper, who have been invited to the capital by his excellency. It will now be in order for the opposition in the commons to attack Lord Aberdeen for using his best efforts to secure a settlement of the school question.

On Thursday afternoon Mr. Charlton gave notice of a motion to get his Sabbath Observance bill before the house next Monday, this course being necessitated by the fact that the committee of the whole rose last night without reporting on the measure. Hon. Mr. Cartwright introduced the government bill to make the present electoral revision due for next year. Before the bill of the day were reached Mr. McCarthy moved the adjournment of the house for the purpose of criticizing the conduct of Governor Schultz and the Dominion Government in making public an opinion Governor Schultz had obtained from Dr. Bourinot on the Manitoba school question. He contended that while the information contained in the report was not public questions and submit such information to his constitutional advisers, he had no right to make it public without their consent, which had not been obtained in this case. Dr. Bourinot's deliverance had appeared in the Empire and Montreal Gazette, and he was reliably informed that the committee given to these papers by the Dominion Premier. On this basis Mr. Cartwright charged that Gov. Schultz, wanting a second term of office, had conspired with Premier Bowell to overthrow the Greenway Government, and that this was the first act in the programme. The opinion which had been obtained from Dr. Bourinot under false pretences was condemned as incorrect and misleading in every particular. He pronounced the course of Governor Schultz utterly unconstitutional, asserting that there was no parallel to this outrage since the days of King George. Hon. Mr. Foster replied very effectively to Mr. McCarthy.
