

RUBBERS! RUBBERS!

Now is the time to secure a pair of the best Rubbers in the city to keep your feet dry.

During the next TEN days we will offer 500 Pairs of the Well Known "MERCHANT BRAND" in Childs, Misses, Women's, and Men's, at Greatly Reduced Prices, and in Jobs we have 1,500 Pairs of Women's and Men's Low and Storm—Women's Low 47c, Storm 53c. Men's Low 68c., Storm 70c.

White Sale Prices are continued.

Marshall Bros

A Typical War Talk.

By RUTH CAMERON.

RUTH CAMERON

Round a comfy open fire in a luxurious living room they sat—five well dressed, well groomed, well fed people, and talked about the horrors of war. "It's a horrible thing, this war," said the man with the smooth shaven face and the general air of sleek prosperity. "Makes you sick to think of it. Nothing like this ever happened to the advertising business before, I can tell you. It's just knocked it flat."

The woman beside him leaned forward and poked the fire idly. The firelight caught the facets of the merry jewels on her long fingered white hands and set them beautifully aflame. "I've thought of nothing else, since it started," she declared. "Such a lot of suffering and misery. And what do you think, my husband said he'd give me a new car for Christmas and now, from the way he talks, we'll have to use the old one until it falls apart."

The "Horrors" of War.

"I can't bear to hear it spoken of, it makes me feel so badly," put in the woman with the huge bunch of violets thrust negligently in her belt. "The poor, poor creatures. And my dear, we were going to build a summer cottage down by the lake and now we can't. I had the plans all drawn and they were adorable. Isn't it a shame?"

"Talk about the advertising business," boomed the big man with the close clipped little moustache that seemed to fairly shirk power and efficiency, "suppose you were on the stock exchange. There ought to be some way to stop war, it oughtn't to be allowed in civilized countries. It isn't decent, it isn't right, it isn't human!" he finished in a burst of righteous indignation.

"Who's ahead anyway?" queried the fluffy little lady who was curled up in a negligent crumple of silk and lace on the couch playing with the big white Persian.

The Silk-Cloth Sufferer.

"Don't you read the papers?" "Goodness, no," with a shrug. "It's all too horrible. I look to see if there's anything about the cotton situation and if there isn't I light the fire with the paper. I can't read about those horrors, you know. They make me so depressed."

"Me, too," said the lady of the many rings, "and I'm tired of talking about it. Let's talk about something pleasant."

And they did. I wonder if you remember a queer old proverb once quoted you—"The one good thing about other people's troubles is that they don't keep us awake nights."

Questions and Answers. Question. Do you think it is necessary for a girl of twenty-two to be chaperoned whenever she goes to the theatre with a man? M.B.

Reply. That is a hard question for me. Personally I do not at all believe in the system of persistent chaperonage, but I know many people do and perhaps they are wiser than I. To my mind it is better to hedge a girl around with high ideals of conduct than with conventions, but if one wants to make assurance treble sure perhaps both are needed. However, if one is to believe what one hears, there seems to be rather less wildness in the middle class where such persistent chaperonage is rare than in the upper where it is the regular thing.

Question. Doubter asks this question. "The Cynic has said a lot about household efficiency. Will you ask him how and where the average busy woman is going to get information on this subject?"

Reply. The Cynic suggests the pages devoted to the subject of home management in the best magazines; the newspaper articles; the house-keeping bulletins issued by the Gov. Department of Agriculture; a splendid book called "The New Housekeeping," by Christine Frederick; valuable booklets offered by advertisers.

Many new silk afternoon gowns have sleeves of two or three layers of chiffon.

Butter!

All we ask is a trial order for our Canadian Butter; we are satisfied that we will get your repeat orders.

5 boxes 2 lb. Slabs. 10 tubs, 19-20 lbs. each.

Also 10 28-lb. boxes Australian Butter. 2 boxes 1 lb. Bricks Irish Butter.

Just to hand this week: Oranges. 95 cases Sound Fruit.

Soper & Moore. Phone 480.

NO MORE CORNS

Guaranteed. Never known to fail; acts without pain in 24 hours. Is soothing, healing; takes the sting right out. No remedy so quick, safe and sure as Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sold everywhere—25c. per bottle.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Two Great Dramas at Nickel Theatre.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE THEM.

The best programme seen at the Nickel Theatre for some time will be seen this evening and to-morrow. There will likely be a large attendance to-day, so visitors should go early. The show will open with a Hearst Stage News showing many fresh items of interest. The late Lord Roberts will be seen reviewing 1,500 men from London offices who volunteered and formed the 10th Fusiliers. There are two two-reel films. One is "The Poor Folks Boy" and the other "His Wife and His Work." Both are brilliant dramas, intensely interesting and cleverly acted. Each has a moral and that they will prove attractive and popular is certain. There are also two side-splitting comedies, "Taming Terrible Ted" and "The Villain Still Pursued Her." The price is small but the value big at the Nickel these days. A goodly amount is needed. Help swell the amount by attending three times weekly or oftener. The Nickel is always good; best pictures, and the hall clean and thoroughly ventilated. There is no place of amusement better.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

Butter!

All we ask is a trial order for our Canadian Butter; we are satisfied that we will get your repeat orders.

5 boxes 2 lb. Slabs. 10 tubs, 19-20 lbs. each.

Also 10 28-lb. boxes Australian Butter. 2 boxes 1 lb. Bricks Irish Butter.

Just to hand this week: Oranges. 95 cases Sound Fruit.

Soper & Moore. Phone 480.

NO MORE CORNS

Guaranteed. Never known to fail; acts without pain in 24 hours. Is soothing, healing; takes the sting right out. No remedy so quick, safe and sure as Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sold everywhere—25c. per bottle.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Two Great Dramas at Nickel Theatre.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE THEM.

The best programme seen at the Nickel Theatre for some time will be seen this evening and to-morrow. There will likely be a large attendance to-day, so visitors should go early. The show will open with a Hearst Stage News showing many fresh items of interest. The late Lord Roberts will be seen reviewing 1,500 men from London offices who volunteered and formed the 10th Fusiliers. There are two two-reel films. One is "The Poor Folks Boy" and the other "His Wife and His Work." Both are brilliant dramas, intensely interesting and cleverly acted. Each has a moral and that they will prove attractive and popular is certain. There are also two side-splitting comedies, "Taming Terrible Ted" and "The Villain Still Pursued Her." The price is small but the value big at the Nickel these days. A goodly amount is needed. Help swell the amount by attending three times weekly or oftener. The Nickel is always good; best pictures, and the hall clean and thoroughly ventilated. There is no place of amusement better.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends of the deceased the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from Mr. Grant's late residence, Monkstown Road to the railway station and thence to Nova Scotia where interment will take place.

Obituary.

JAMES W. GRANT.

The passing of a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the person of James W. Grant, occurred at his late residence, Monkstown Road, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had only been ailing since Thursday last, and the end came rather unexpectedly. James W. Grant was born at Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on March 15th, 1863, and came to Newfoundland in 1889, having been engaged in the lumber business of the Colony up to the time of his decease. He was a keen business man, and after a few years became associated with many local industries. He was a member of the City Club for many years, also a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge. He is survived by a widow, two daughters Ruth, recently married to Mr. C. Archibald, of the N. S. Steel Co., Bell Island, and Jean, three sons William, Ernest and David, the eldest William, being with the First Nfld. Regiment. To these and the many friends