Treat For Art Lovers.

Excellent Exhibit at the Y. M. C. A. Art Loan.

Water Colors and Oil Paintings by Famous Artists—Interesting Display in the China, Curio and Children's Departments.

The art loan at the Y.M.C.A. building opened this morning at 10 o'clock. Elaborate preparations have been made by the ladies of the auxiliary, who have the exhibit in charge, and in the various departments are extensive and highly interesting collections. The entire suite of rooms on the second floor of Association Hall, with the exception of the curio and children's departments, is devoted to the display, and the rooms are artistically decorated with palms, flowers, festoons and tapestries.

The ladies were busy this morning, with final arrangements for the reception of the public, and the members of the different committees.

Stencils—Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Stanley Williams and Mrs. McFassart.
Chairs—Mrs. R. G. Fisher, Mrs. Ser-ran, Mrs. McKee, and Miss Elsie Perkins.
Curios—Mrs. David Mills, Mrs. E. Reil.
Children's Room—Mrs. Sawyer, Miss Gibson and Miss Burns.

Furnishings—Miss Ware.
The spacious, well-lighted rooms afford excellent facilities for the large exhibition, and lovers of art have been provided with a rare treat. The pictures include water colors and oil paintings by such well known artists as Prospero, Schaefer, Maas, the world-famous chicken painter, Paul Peck, P. M. Bell-Smith, A.R.C.A., J. Duncan, H.A. Needham, A.R.A., O'Brien, A.R.C.A., James Griffey, R.C.A., and A. Hall, of Belgium. "The Return from School," a large oil painting by T. M. Bell-Smith, is one of unusual interest to Londoners, as it represents the old Union school, and a group of children sketched from life.

The china department contains some very valuable modern ware, and there are several pieces exhibited which are over 200 years old. These quaint relics are very highly prized.

For the children, there is a room filled with objects of delight. An important feature of the exhibit is the valuable collection of the entomological society, who have consented to throw open their rooms to the public of the art loan.

The music furnished almost continually by competent musicians greatly to the charm of the exhibit. This afternoon Miss Constance Cameron and Miss Beatrice Gibson presided at the piano.

The rooms are open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., and the exhibit will close Friday night.
