Kuropatkin May Be Caught Between Two Armies-Port Arthur Must Fight Battles Unaided.

Tokio, Friday, May 6, 12 noon is officially announced that a Japanese force began landing on the Liao Tung Peninsula yesterday

The place where the landing is oc-curring and the number of men being landed is withheld.

[Pitsewo is situated on the east coast of the Liao Tung Peninsula, and about 75 miles northeast of Port Arthur. It is near the narrowest part of the peninsula, along which passe the railroad connecting Port Arthur with Mukden and Harbin. Kin Chou Bay, where the Japanese transports are also reported to have been sighted, is on the west coast of the Liao Tung Peninsula and not far from Pitsewo.] PORT ARTHUR CUT OFF.

London, May 6 - A dispatch to th Central News from St. Petersburg today says the Japanese landed at Port Adams on the west coast of the Liao Tung Peninsula, as well as at Pitsewo. Port Adams is situated about 50 miles from Port Arthur, at the head of Society Bay, and on the railroad conecting Port Arthur with Mukden and Harbin. Consequently it may be inferred that if the report of a Japanese landing there is correct, communication with Port Arthur has been cut off. Pitsewo. on the east coast, where the Japanese have landed, is less than 20 miles from Port Adams.
