BELGIANS RESENTFUL
Indignant That Anarchist Should Die for Plot Against Sultan.

Brussels, Jan. 15.—Serious developments are likely to arise from the condemnation to death of the Belgian Anarchist, Joris, by a Turkish court for complicity in the attempt on the life of the Sultan.

As far back as August the ministry for foreign affairs here was petitioned and the treaty of 1838 and the law of 1861 were recalled.

Since Joris' condemnation a serious agitation has been carried on, in which members of all political parties are taking part.

Belgian public opinion is almost unanimously in favor of the condemned man, who has numerous friends at Antwerp, and is held in high esteem.

The French and Belgian Leagues of the Rights of Man have taken up the case, and a special committee has been appointed in Antwerp, where a great demonstration in Joris' favor was held recently.

Pilots Fly Strike.
Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Jan. 14.—Captain Thorne, organizer for the Lake Pilots' Protective Association, is affiliated with the Longshoremen's Association, says that every boat belonging to the Lake Carriers' Association will be tied up next summer unless the latter association refuses from the stand it took at its Detroit meeting this week not to engage mates belonging to any labor association.

"THIS WELL TO KNOW A GOOD THING."Said Mrs. Surface to Mrs. Know-well, when they met in the street. "Why, where have you been for a week back?" "Oh, just down to the store for a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil," said Mrs. Surface, who makes puns, walked on. But she remembered, when she contracted a weak back there was another customer for Electric Oil.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY
[From The London Advertiser, Jan. 15, 1871.]

The council elected to serve for 1871 will meet for the first time on Monday at noon, and organize for business by electing one of their number as mayor. Who is to be the mayor? seems a question that no one can answer with certainty. The present mayor, Mr. Graydon, is a candidate for re-election, and Ald. T. Partridge, jun., and Ald. J. M. Cousins are also in the field for election. Opinions appear to be divided as to the prospects of the two latter. The division, it is said, will be exceedingly close, with the prospects in favor of Ald. Cousins.

The election of officers for 1871 of St. George's Society was held last evening, and resulted as follows:
President—W. H. Essery.
First Vice-President—George Phillips.
Second Vice-President—W. H. Griffiths.

Chaplains—Revs. J. W. Marsh and G. M. Innes.
Secretary—George Pritchard (pro tem).
Treasurer—E. B. Reed.
Physicians—Drs. Harper, Cattermole, and Payne.

Auditors—Messrs. J. Overell and J. Stalker.
Committee of Management—Messrs. J. Pannel, F. Westlake, T. A. Harley, J. Eldridge, sen., T. Hall, H. Judd and W. Warner.

Messrs. Roe & Judd have been awarded the contract for supplying the city schools with cordwood at the rate of $3 70 per cord.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Mr. Jack Mansell has returned to Chicago, after a pleasant holiday in this city.

—The Epworth Leagues of the city will hold a rally tonight in the Asklin Street Methodist Church.

—Miss Dressie Stevenson, London, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Thompson at Attwood last week.

—Messrs. Wm. Row and S. J. Hessel, of South London, left yesterday morning on a holiday trip for Warren and Erie, Penn.

—The first of the weekly dances to be given at Wolsely Barracks during the winter months will take place tomorrow evening.

—Mrs. James W. Wootton and daughter Florence, of Matland street north, are visiting Mrs. George Atkinson, at Wallaceburg.

—All Saints' Church, Windsor, was reopened Sunday after undergoing repairs, Rev. Canon Dann, of this city, presiding at both the morning and evening services.

—"The Way of the Transgressor" drew only a fair audience to the Grand Saturday night. The play is a rip-roaring melodrama, and it pleased the audience very much.

—Mr. A. Reynolds, Windsor, agent for the M. C. R., and insurance broker, has brought suit to recover a commission for the loan given the Central Methodist Church by the London Loan and Savings Company of this city.

A pearl crescent was found on the floor of the city hall after the travel.

Biliousness From the Liver.

Biliousness is caused by the failure of the liver to filter the bile and other poisonous impurities from the blood. The result is a clogging and poisoning of the whole system.

Indigestion, headache, languid, melancholy feelings, irritability of temper, constipation, alternating with looseness of the bowels, pains in the muscles and bones and a pale, sallow complexion are among the symptoms.

Fortunately there is a prompt and certain cure for biliousness and torpid liver in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They cure by thoroughly cleansing the filtering and excretory systems and awakening the action of the liver to renewed energy and activity.

When you feel out of sorts and notice any of the symptoms of torpid liver and biliousness, put Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver pills to the test and you will then understand why this great medicine is considered indispensable in the great majority of homes.

ers' ball on Friday evening. The owner can have same by applying to the Travelers' Club. A diamond and pearl brooch, a gold wreath, set with pearls, and two fans were lost, and are not yet recovered.

—Mr. Joseph Gibson, postmaster of Ingersoll, addressed the men's meeting at the Auditorium yesterday afternoon, dealing specially with some aspects of the liquor traffic. Mr. Gibson is a most forcible speaker, and was listened to with interest by a large audience of men.

—The remains of the late James Bowman were interred yesterday afternoon in Melrose Cemetery. The funeral, held from the family residence, lot 10, concession 4, of Lobo, was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Nethercote conducted services in Melrose Methodist Church. The pallbearers were: John Mitchell, George Mitchell, Chas. Tolwood, and Hugh McIntyre.

Bert Harvey, humorist, of Toronto, and Miss Anthistie, reader, gave the programme at the "Pop" on Saturday evening. Mr. Harvey was here last winter and showed himself as popular a number. Miss Anthistie was especially good in "The Execution of Sidney Cartan," from "The Tale of Two Cities."

APPEAL FOR ABOLITION OF SUNDAY FUNERALS
Read on Behalf of the Ministerial Alliance in Many of the Churches Yesterday.

The following letter was read in a number of the city churches yesterday: "To the Pastors and Members of the Churches in the City of London: 'As ministers of Jesus Christ, we are most anxious for the preservation of the Lord's Day, and all the duties relating to the church and Sunday school. We view with sincere regret the tendency to increase the number of Sunday funerals. As we well know, when these are held, our Sunday school work is seriously interfered with. 'While we have no desire to shirk any duty, yet we feel that, in most cases, Sunday funerals could be avoided, and the ministers should not be taken from their Sunday school work, unless when absolutely necessary. Therefore, in the interest of the church's work, we appeal to the Christian public and all concerned to co-operate with us in going away with Sunday funerals, as far as possible. We quite understand that cases may arise when it will be necessary to bury on the Lord's Day, but these will be few and might be private. We most sincerely and earnestly appeal to all our fellow-citizens for their sympathy and assistance in this important matter. 'Signed, on behalf of the Ministerial Alliance: 'D. S. HAMILTON, president; 'ARTHUR CARLISLE, secretary.'"

IN MEMORY OF LATE A. B. COX
Windows and Screen Erected at St. John the Evangelist Church.

Two handsome stained-glass windows, and also a screen, erected to the memory of the late Mr. Alfred Beverley Cox, were dedicated yesterday at the Church of St. John the Evangelist, by the rector, Rev. Canon Hill, assisted by Rev. Arthur Carlisle, assistant rector of the Memorial Church, and Mr. Albert Smith, the latter representing St. John's Athletic Club, which Mr. Cox organized and made so successful.

In connection with the dedication, the rector preached a sermon, in which he spoke of the justification found in the Scripture for beautifying the church. God loved beauty; then why should not his people? The skill of the painter and the carver were rightly called into requisition upon this particular occasion. Mr. Hill memorialized the congregation to remember the power behind these tributes to Mr. Cox's memory.

"It is the power of a man's life; once with us, and, thank God, still with us. Though unseen it may be, it is still felt. These windows open to us an old chapter in parish history. They tell us of the power of Christian manliness, of fidelity and true worth. Alfred Beverley Cox does not need this recognition, for we believe that God has written his name in the Lamb's Book of Life."

Mr. Hill dwelt at some length on the material side of the church, which he characterized as religion in bricks and mortar. The church stood as a watchman for God and eternity. It was the creed of the congregation in stone, and such was worthy of the highest support, and could not be beautified too greatly. Beauty was a very sacrament of God—a fragment of his own splendor revealed to our dim sight.

The new windows are truly a work of art. They were erected at a cost of about $250, and the new church, which reaches across the front part of the church, cost about $250. The interior of the church benefits greatly by the changes.

Rev. Dr. Ross, interim moderator of the churches of the London Presbytery, yesterday morning declared the New St. James' Presbyterian Church pulpit vacant. Rev. Mr. McGillivray, the retiring minister, and his wife will be tendered a farewell social in the lecture-room this evening by the congregation at 8 o'clock. On Tuesday evening the supply committee will meet to

CARROLL ALLEGED TO HAVE OPERATED WIDELY

Guelph Police Make Inquiries Concerning the Supposed Cheap Magazine Fakir.

Chief of Police Randall, of Guelph, has been making inquiries regarding Edward Carroll, the alleged magazine fakir, under arrest on a charge of fraud, and he has learned that the operations of Carroll were not confined to Guelph alone, but extended throughout the entire Province.

Chief Randall communicated with the authorities of the prominent towns and cities, and as a result has received letters from London, Hamilton, Stratford, Quebec, Toronto and numerous other places in Ontario and Quebec, stating that operations had been carried on there as well.

It is believed that Carroll has swindled the people out of hundreds of dollars, and that in the majority of places he visited charges of giving worthless checks can also be laid against him.

In London, Carroll is said to have gone under the name of Robert Duncan. Carroll's plan of operation at Guelph was to advertise magazines at a ridiculously low figure, all letters being addressed to Elliott Bros., a fictitious firm. To make business come quickly the prices were announced as good for one week only, and the result was that "Elliott Bros." mail became very heavy. Suspicion was aroused, and the post-office department being notified, Carroll was arrested while getting the mail at the Guelph postoffice.

PROGRESSIVE INSTITUTION
Canadian Bank of Commerce Business Goes Ahead With Strides.

One of the most progressive, and at the same time, one of the most solid, of Canada's financial institutions, is the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the thirty-ninth annual report of which appears in this issue of The Advertiser. The report is worthy of the careful perusal of all who are interested in the financial affairs of Canada. During 1905 the business of the bank went ahead with rapid strides. The figures show that after writing off a large sum for bank premises, providing for bad debts, and also providing for the usual dividend, the rest fund was increased by $1,000,000, bringing it up to the magnificent total of $4,500,000.

The report shows further that during the year just closed the paid-up capital of the bank was increased by an issue of $1,500,000 of new stock, on which the premium was $54,994. In this regard it might be pointed out, that as the amount of note currency a bank is allowed to issue bears a direct relation to its paid-up stock, it is apparent that by this enlargement of its share capital the Bank of Commerce was put in a much better condition to take advantage of the rapidly growing business of the whole Dominion. It is worthy of note that the paid-up capital of this splendid institution is now $10,000,000.

During 1905 the increased demands of the west resulted in the bank opening up three new branches in British Columbia, six in Alberta, five in Saskatchewan, and two in Manitoba. Londoners have for many years re-
