irst Session Was Sizzling Mix for Nine Rounds, but Weird Procession Brought Victory to the Sausage Makers-Sammy Smith Combed a-Plenty, and Lack of Sustaining Wallops in Second Kills Our Chances.

The Tecumsehs, just to show some plain and fancy things in the line of slumps, paraded before a goodly sprinkling of gents and gentesses, yesterday afternoon, and obliged them by shoving a cute pair of games into the friendly mitt of one, Rube Deneau, pilot of the Flying Dutchmen.

The first was won by a score of 7 to 5, while the second went to the visitors, 4 to 1. Altogether, it was a lovely slaughter,

The first game was a smashing mix-up for eight innings, and then the Dutchmen started rough-house doings, and at this juncture the undertaker made his appearance.

Frenchy Chaput, who formerly cavorted in a Berlin uniform, started for the home folks, and for the greater part of the game pitched like he used to in the good old days. In the ninth, however, somebody cut the guy-wires, and the machine moved into the azure blue.

The very heavens rained base-hits, and Oskee Neale had to wire in for dark glasses, for fear he would be killed in the shower. Every son of Erin on the Dutch team just walloped the inoffensive ball to the weeds, and the outfielders ran themselves into condition for the Boston Marathon chasing them.

Games Are Slipping Underneath Our Feet. Only six runs were scored in this frame, and judging from the smiles that spread the classic countenance of Rube Deneau one would believe that they were simply kidding our boys al

It was some finish for the Berliners, but a bad half for the fans. Gilhooley was the fancy youngster in this session, and showed like the real ball-player he is.

Greenhaugh and Kelleher sure did field some. Mr. Nickells who is built on the same style of architecture as the Eiffe Tower, was a regular Samson. He could flay our whole outfift with an ordinary jawbone. His extra base wallops did the dame

Mr. Beattie obliged for the Dutchmen, and pitched a fair article of ball. Bramble finished the ninth inning for him, and saved the bacon, as Jawn Johnson would say.

The second affray was a nice pastime, in which the visitors combed our talented vaudeville artist, Samuel D. Smith a-plenty. His musical partner, Mr. Speer, received Sam's artistic delivery, except when some green-hosed gent slammed i through the meadows, and the like. Four runs were garnered wild pitch-smith. Time, 1:21. Cubs Gain Half-Game on Leaders by Taking a Pair From the Phillies.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20. — Wiltse was effective with men on the bases, while Harmon was hit when hits meant runs, work yesterday being particularly impressive. He and Speer will fight it out for the catching job.

Myers started the third inning by taking first base when Harmon hit him. Fletcher was out to Magee. Wiltse singled, Myers stopping at second. Snodgrass then tripled to left centre, scoring Myers and Wiltse. Doyle's single brought Snodgrass home with the third run. Becker singled and Murray ended the inning by hitting into a double play.

In the fifth inning the leaders scored another run on Fletcher's walk, Wiltse's sacrifice and Dooin's single.

Herzog singled and went to second on Oakes' fumble in the seventh; Myers was out and Fletcher reached first on Huggins' error; Herzog scored on Wiltse's third hit of the game.
