BRANTFORD BEATS ST. THOMAS TWICE

Tail-Enders Take Double Bill
From Craven's Crew.

CHASE WAS INVINCIBLE

Brant Twirler Gives But Two Hits---Scout Elberfeld
in the Stand.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 4.---Rube Denard's Tailenders grabbed a double-ender from the Saints here today. Chase, the visitors' splendid left-hand heaver, was in rare form in the first contest, the locals only being able to collect two hits. Howick also pitched well, but his support was off color. In the second affair, Nichols and Hughes were both hit opportunely, the Saints errors being more costly. Norman Elberfeld, one of the grandest little ball players the game has ever known, witnessed the pastime. He played the shortfield for the Detroit Tigers, afterwards going to the Detroit Tigers, afterwards going to the Detroit Tigers, afterwards going to the Detroit Tigers.

THE LATEST NEWS AND GOSSIP OF CANADIAN LEAGUE DOINGS

George H. O'Neil was the happiest man at the London-Toronto contest when the Erie vs. Ottawa score was posted. "I think I'll set 'em up for the boys." At a late hour last night, George was still thinking.

The Ottawa papers say the race is all over but the shouting. Hoover, the Hamilton youth who joined the Wobly League, is now working out with White's Athletics.

A Hamilton sleuth discovered yesterday that it was Dougherty, of the Athletics, who sent Red Fisher the black-hand letter.

Hamilton papers say although it may be a big surprise, London may win the Canadian League pennant.

Scout Elberfeld will watch contest today.

Brooklyn Scout Searching for New Material Will Attend Today's and Labor Day Games.

Word was received here last night that Kid Elberfeld, a Brooklyn National League scout, will attend today's games between Toronto and London at Tecumseh Park today and the St. Thomas series on Labor Day.

CHIC FEDS BEAT INDIANAPOLIS. CHICAGO, Sept. 4.---Chicago today defeated Indianapolis 2 to 1 in ten innings. Indianapolis' last appearance here this season. Score: By Innings: R.H.E.
