NEW YORK, July 24.-Today's early tock market presented a curious contradiction of conditions, most of the potential issues showing a heavy tendency, gains. A prominent feature was New Haven, which declined to a new low Haven, which declined to a new low record, but soon recovered to a fraction above yesterday's close. Baltimore and Ohio, which deciined 1½, also made partial recovery. Can, Smelting and Cotton Oil displayed some heaviness. People's Gas was the strongest of the specialties, its rise approximating 4 points. Biscuit, Beet Sugar and American Tobacco showed gains from 13 to over 2 points. Trading was dull and professional. In Government bonds, threes and fours fell to low record, prices

Convicts Shriek as Prison Burns

Second Fire Inside of a Week at Sing Sing.

[Canadian Press.]

Ossining, N. Y., July 24.-Another fire at Sing Sing prison today gave the demonstrations. The blaze started in the clothing shop, and the prison fire brigade extinguished it, after a hard fight, without outside aid.

It was the second fire in the prison buildings this week, notwithstanding the fact that the guards had been doubled since $150,000 worth of property was burned up there two days ago. If these fires were started by convicts, the warden as yet has been mable to place the blame. When the fire broke out today in the clothing shop the whistles were lown and every precaution was taken o guard against the escape of conicts. While the guards and the "trusties" detailed to fire duty were attacking the flames, more than housand prisoners locked in their ells raised a chorus of yells that ounded high above the noise of the

The men at work in the building vere marched out in good order, and the blaze was extinguished after most f the contents of the shop had been ossed out of the windows and drenchd with water.

Dr. O'Neill was well known here, where he resided for many years. Some time ago he purchased a large ranch in Saskatchewan, and had been in sold in London shall be slaughtered the habit of spending the summers on and inspected, before the board of it. He left London for the west carly last March, accompanied by his wife the time of his death.

The cause of his death is unknown to the members of the family, who reside in this city. Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. F. Brown, of this city, and Mrs. N. Milne, of Monticello, Fla., and three sons, Harry, of Toronto, Ralph, of Montreal, and Louis, of Saskatchewan. One sister and three brothers also survive. Third Line Scon.

A further assurance against hydro reakdowns in London will be the third ower line, that will be constructed from Niagara Falls to London when the Windsor line is put through, according to General Manager H. Glaubitz, of the water commission. Th construction of this line is expected to be completed shortly.

Want Better Roads.

While the usual tax payment kicks are not being registered as strenuously at the city hall as they were expected, the main grievance the tax-Luders payers appear to have, is the fact that Lumbye road improvement is not up to the standard the citizens believe it should be with the present high tax rate. The majority of the complaints that are passed over the counter with the tax installments are against the poor condition of the roads.

"Sandy" Objects.

License and Relief Inspector J. W. McCallum has a grievance to nurse It is about something that many griev nces have been connected with, the garbage collection, wit. 'Sandy's" is a trifle different from the majority. His office is besieged daily by dozens of people who imagine that the garbage collection is under his protecting wings. Telephone and verbal messages come pouring in about the garbage department. Superintendent W. C. Dodd, who is in charge of the work, has office room in the publicity commissioner's department on the second "co". His telephone number is 912 and complaints should be directed there, rather than to the office of Inspector McCallum, which has nothing to do with the garbage ques-

MYSTERY DEEPENS HOURLY ABOUT MURDER OF BEAUTIFUL ALICE CRISPELL, WHO SANK TO SILENCE AFTER WHITE NIGHT OF REVELRY.

ALICE CRISPELL AND AERBERT JOHNS.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 23.-"I took my gun from the shelf and pointed it my daughter. It would be better that the bullet in this gun should pierce your heart than that you should sell your soul to the devil,' I told her.' Such was the warning William Crispell, Wilkesbarre, Pa., gave his daughter Alice, whose body was taken from Harvey's Lake on July 7, when he realized that she was following that will-o'-the-wisp-the light that shines from cafe windows. Herbert Johns, sweetheart of the drowned girl, has just been rearrested for her murder, although a coroner's jury had exonerated him. Alice Crispell was last seen alive July 4 and Johns was the last person een with her. He says they spent the evening in dancing and then parted He has declared he does not know how she came to her death. William Crispell, the father, is a religious enthusiast, following his conersion by Billy Sunday. In a remarkable statement, he lays his daughter's leath at the door of bad companions and an undeveloped mind's mad passion

The police are dilating between the theories that a religious maniac slew Alice and that she was a victim of one of her sweethearts. The case grows more mysterious hourly.
