A RISING STAR

We Westerners are reading and writing about China and the mighty drama that is being enacted there as if China was a foreign country, and as if the events there were to us only stage plays among marionettes or fabulous Lilliputians. Nothing is more foreign to the facts. The old Roman dramatist who brought down the theatre by the line, "I am a man, and I count nothing human foreign to me," stated an eternal truth, the reality of which we are realizing today, not in sentiment but in hard facts, now that the ends of the earth are so knit together that we read before dinner the events of the same date in China and know them as soon as the Chinese themselves do—now that wages in China lose value as silver is dug at Cobalt. But still, seeing, we see and do not perceive, and hearing, we hear and do not understand. We are going on making all our economic plans and throwing up and fortifying our protectionist earthworks as though three hundred millions of the most enduring workers in the world were waking up to take their share in the world's counsel.

If, at a time when railways are penetrating China's iron beds and outcrops of coal, Great Britain should put burdens on her own supplies and then counterbalance the same by yielding as she must do to the demands of labor for more pay, she would be voluntarily handing over to her yellow brethren the iron work of the world, which is a large part of her living. If, at a time when China is importing the very latest textile machinery and setting up spinning and weaving plants equal to the best in England or New England, Britain, whose selling markets are overseas, should add in any avoidable way to the cost of textile production her other arm, her textile industry, would be paralyzed. It may seem quite possible to form great labor combinations and force up the price of labor, but in industrial enterprises their is a breaking point, and it may be only brought nearer by such successes. We are in no position to solve the economic problems we have stated, but it is no use shutting our eyes to them, and it is certain that it is not possible to shut our gates against them.

China up till now has been a negligible quantity as a world power. There might have been differences in Europe as to what bits each would have if she fell to pieces, as it was assumed she would do at the first shock, but there was no thought of her having anything serious to say in the matter. Any notion that she sent its gunboats up the West River or the Yangtze; or, if any nation might not, it was due to European no to Chinese opposition. Japan was a negligible quantity forty years ago, but it is not now, and China is seven times Japan. We do not know how the present revolution will end, but we do know that it will leave China a modern nation and a modern power—Ex.

HEAVY DRINKER CURED

Samaria Cured Him and He Helps Others.

A man who has been released from the awful cravings of drink, and whose first thought is to help others, shows the spirit of true brotherhood and philanthropy. Read his letter: "The Samaria Remedy Co., Toronto, Ont."

"Will you please send me book on drink, also circulars relating to your valued remedy for the drink habit. I wish to hand these to a friend who is going to ruin through drink. You will remember that I have taken your remedy, and I find it all you claim it to be. I never think of taking or using strong drink in any way, as all desire for it has left me. I cannot speak too highly of your wonderful remedy. You may use my name in any way you wish in public."

H. Lilywhite, Bridgen, Ontario. Samaria Prescription is tasteless and odorless, and dissolves instantly in tea or coffee, or can be mixed with food. It can be given with or without the patient's knowledge. It removes the craving for drink, builds up the system and restores the nerves. Drink becomes distasteful and even nauseous.

Drink is a disease, not a crime. One drink of whiskey always invites another. The inflamed nerves and stomach create a craving that must either be satisfied by more whiskey or removed by scientific treatment like Samaria Prescription. Samaria Prescription has been in regular and successful use by Physicians and Hospitals for over ten years. If you know of any family needing Samaria Prescription, tell them about it. If you have a husband, father or friend that is drifting into drink, help him save himself. Write to-day.

A FREE TRIAL PACKAGE of Samaria Prescription, with booklet giving full particulars, testimonials, price, etc., will be sent in a plain sealed package to any one mentioning this paper. Correspondence: Samaria Remedy Co., Dept. 77 49 Colborne St., Toronto.

Gloucester Member Speaks in Commons

Mr. Turgeon of Gloucester spoke in the House Monday evening, eulogizing most of the ministers and going on to refer to reciprocity. Referring to Hon. Mr. Hazen, he said that change in conditions since 1891 was his reason for supporting it. He dealt with the resources of New Brunswick in fishing, lumbering, and farming, claiming that that province has no market in Canada as people of Ontario and west have their own fish. In the lumber industry conditions have changed. The competition of Russian spruce is curtailing the province's exports to London. The United States, he claimed, was only a market for by-products. It would remain the ambition of the Maritime Provinces to put the pact through as long as there were fish in the Atlantic and trees in the forest.

Dealing with the navy, he hoped Mr. Hazen when he went to England would bring back a plan which he could support and the government would take the responsibility and not resort to a plebiscite, which he described as useless and unpatriotic.

MORE ABOUT STYLE

is the most important feature of clothing nowadays. By this we do not mean fancy cuffs, extremely long coats, odd shaped lapels, or loud patterns. We do not mean foppish clothes. Style isn't something that makes a man look odd or calls special attention to his clothes. It is and should be the element that contributes an air of culture, refinement, taste. That's the kind of style you'll find in 20th Century Brand bench-tailored clothes.

SOLE AGENTS,

SOMETHING NEW

No more ashes to lug, no clumsy ash pan to spill dust or dirt on the kitchen floor.

The GLENWOOD ASH SHUTE solves the problem. It is situated just beneath the grate and connected by a sheet iron pipe straight down through the kitchen floor to the ash barrel in the cellar. No dust can escape, just slide the damper once each day and drop the ashes directly into the ash barrel.

This is only one of the splendid improvements of the plain CABINET GLENWOOD, the range without ornamentation or fancy nickle. THE MISSION STYLE GLENWOOD, every essential refined and improved upon. This is the Range for your New Residence, snug plain and handsome, the most perfect baker and the most Modern and UP-TO-DATE Range that is made in Canada to-day.

Come and have us show you the GLENWOOD whether you intend to purchase or not.
