Something Fascinating About It

THE joy of the dance—the laughing lilt of the latest rag —a bounding, resounding cataract of soul-stirring sound—isn't that the picture your mind calls up when you think of music?

Perhaps that's the phase of music you best appreciate—the gladsome, joyful abandon, the vim and vigor of echoing melody. Then-when you come to buy your piano it's the big feature you'll look for—the power to lift you out of yourself with the carefree, bountiful cheeriness of its conducting. The Rev. C. F. Webber presided at the organ. The hymns, "Lead Kindly Light," "Rock of Ages," and "Nearer My God to Thee," were sung. The chief mourners were the deccessed's sister, Mrs. Champion, and her desighter, who came from Vaneouver. There was a large attendance, for the deceased was well known and much respected. Among the floral tributes was a beautiful spray
