The thugs, after they had gone through him, threw him on the ground and ran. Mr. Tolhurst was nearly suffocated by the cloth and it was some minutes before he recovered sufficiently to give the alarm.

London, Jan. 6.—The news received at Liverpool concerning the shughter of British troops in the interior of Sierra Leone has been confirmed by the advices of the Foreign and War Offices. The officers killed were Capt. Lendy, Lieut. C. Wroughton, Lieut. Liston and a sergeant. The 26 privates who were shot were all negroes. The Government despatches are withheld and only part of their contents can be ascertained.

PERFORM ITS DUTY."

Arsenals Hereafter, London, Jan. 5.-In the House of Commons to-day further questions were asked regarding the situation at Rio Janeiro and the protection afforded British interests

Sir H. Kay-Shuttleworth, Secretary of the Admiralty, replied that there were four British warships at Rio Janeiro, which was a greater number than any other country had there. These vessels were sufficient to protect British interests. He added that the Admiralty had no intention of directing the commander of the British North American squadron to proceed to Rio Janeiro, as the Government had every con-fidence in Captain Lang, the present British naval commander there.

Sir Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett asked: "Do you imply that the British squadron at Rio Janeiro is stronger in point of armament than any other squadron?

"I ask the question," he added, "because the ships representing one naval power there are twice as strong as the British ships."

The Secretary replied that the Admiralty was of the opinion that the British force at Rio Janeiro was sufficient to perform its
