A WOMAN'S ORDEAL
DREADS DOCTOR'S QUESTIONS
 Thousands Write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and Receive Valuable Advice Absolutely Confidential and Free.
 There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions in regard to her private life, even when those questions are asked by her family physician, and many continues to suffer rather than to submit to examinations which so many physicians propose in order to intelligently treat the disease; and this is the reason why so many physicians fail to cure female disease.

 This is also the reason why thousands upon thousands of women are corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. To her they can confide every detail of their illness, and from her great knowledge, obtained from years of experience in treating female ills, Mrs. Pinkham can advise sick women more wisely than the local physician.
 Read how Mrs. Pinkham helped Delle Emerentienne Montreuil, of 114 Latourville St., Quebec, Que.
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
 "I suffered for eight months with what the doctors called prolapsus, which caused great weakness all over my system, with faint dizzy spells. I kept growing weaker and weaker. I tried several medicines which they claimed would cure my trouble, but nothing was of the least benefit until I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and this helped me so rapidly that I could hardly believe my good fortune. I would gladly have paid $25.00 for that first bottle, for it started me on the road to health, and five bottles cured me. I am most grateful for my splendid, robust health, and shall certainly recommend the Vegetable Compound in glowing terms to all my friends and acquaintances, for it is deserving of all the praise I can give it."
 Mountains of proof establish the fact that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for restoring women's health.

The Load of Hay.
 The following story, sent by a contributor, while not being absolutely new, may be in this form, and may interest those of our readers who have never before heard it.
 Mr. Smith, a farmer, coming in from the field one day to dinner, found a load of hay upset near his gate, and a young lad working industriously to re-load it.
 "Hello, my boy! You've been having bad luck haven't you?" asked Mr. Smith.
 "Yessir," replied the boy without pausing in his work.
 "Well, come in and have some dinner, then I'll help you load the hay," said Mr. Smith.
 "Oh no! I mustn't, father wouldn't like it."
 "Oh, pshaw! your father won't care. Come right in and have some dinner. You're hungry, aren't you?"
 "Yessir, but I don't think father'd—"
 "Of course he wouldn't," declared Mr. Smith. "Come right along and get a good dinner. The work will be all the easier for it."
 The boy, hot and flushed, looked longingly toward the house, but repeated, "I don't think, sir, father'd like to have me stop."
 However, Mr. Smith, finally overruled the boy's repeated refusals and insisted upon taking him in to dinner.
 Throughout the meal the boy seemed uneasy, hunched around in his chair, looked over his shoulder, ate rapidly and was so manifestly uncomfortable that his kind-hearted host pitied him.
 "Don't worry about your hay, boy. I'll help you load it. Eat a good dinner."
 "I know father won't like it," reiterated the boy.
 "He won't care, why should he? You just eat a good dinner and don't worry."
 "I'm sure father won't like it," persisted the youth.
 "Well!" exclaimed the astonished Mr. Smith. "What kind of a man have you for a father, anyway! Where is he?"
 "He's under the load of hay, sir."

Why Menem Thin and Pale.
 Pale people have pale blood. The stomach is wrong, assimilation is poor and food is not changed into blood. The system lacks vitality and reconstructive power which can be supplied by Ferrozone. It braces the appetite, digestion is stimulated, what you eat is transformed into the kind of nutriment your system requires. Vital life-giving blood that makes rosy cheeks, strength that defies weariness, spirit and ambition all come from Ferrozone. Try a 50c. box. Sold everywhere.

LAMBTON FALL ASSIZES.
 Mr. Justice Clute the Presiding Judge.
 The Lambton Fall Assizes opened at the Court House Monday afternoon before Mr. Justice Clute. The cases to come before the Court are as follows:
 Burley vs. Grand Trunk, an action for damages for death of Alonzo Burley, killed on the railway track at London. J. R. Logan for plaintiff; W. H. Biggar for defendant.

 Cliff vs. McDonald, an action for breach of promise of marriage. Cowan & Towers, for plaintiff; Simpson & Blair, Bowmanville, for defendant. Thomas Henry Carter vs. Margaret Graystock Leach. Action to recover legacy of $1,000 under the will of the late Joseph Featherstone, Moore. Cowan & Towers for plaintiff; Pardoe & Burnham for defendant.
 Quilan vs. DeCoteau and Dooley, an action for recovery of a piano. J. R. Logan for plaintiff; Cowan & Towers for defendant.
 George N. Hargrove vs. Lambton Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Co. Action to recover insurance on barn. Hanna, LeSueur & Co. for plaintiff; Cowan & Towers for defendant.
 Wm. Hicks vs. John Leitch, action to recover $2,000 damages for seduction of plaintiff's daughter. Hanna, LeSueur & Co. for plaintiff; Cowan & Towers for defendant.
 Geo. C. Gardiner vs. D. G. Robotham. Action to recover $691.50 damages for nonfulfillment to contract for delivery of hay. Hanna, LeSueur & Co. for plaintiff; D. C. Ross, Strathroy for defendant.

The first case to come before the Court was that of Burley vs. G. T. R. The hearing of the accident occupied the attention of the Court Monday afternoon and all day Tuesday. It was an action for damages for the death of the late Alonzo Burley of this town who met his death at London yards while making a running shunt. At noon Tuesday Judge, Jury and Counsel visited the Cromwell street yards of the Grand Trunk and inspected the freight car which fatally crushed the late Conductor Burley. About half past seven o'clock last night a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff for $1,080.
 Geo. Hargrove vs. Lambton Farmers' Mutual Ins. Co. Settled by payment of $750 by company.
 Geo. C. Gardiner vs. G. D. Robotham, for damages for breach of a hay contract. Settled by payment of $250.
 The action of Quilan vs. DeCoteau and Dooley, resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff for $75 without costs to be paid by DeCoteau. The judge holding that plaintiff had a priority on piano for the amount paid on it.

Butter From Whey.
 Cheese factories in the province are beginning to find a remunerative use for the whey fat, which has in the past been the cause of a nuisance. A number of manufacturers, according to Mr. H. A. Putnam, superintendent of farmers' institutes, are making butter from the fat contained in the whey, which was formerly lost. Some of this butter, which does not differ from the ordinary output of the dairy, has taken prizes over the home-made butter and even over the product of some creameries. One factory proprietor says he has made $1,500 worth of butter from the whey. It will be only a matter of time before all the factories are utilizing it in the same manner.

The Farmstead.
 Our banks are all right. Farmers need not fear our Canadian banks. Panicky people endanger everyone else. More headwork will solve the feed question.
 Some people will boast themselves that they do not pull another one down. That is not the question—are you building him up?
 It does not look as if farmers will realize too extravagant prices for their red clover seed. Importation from Europe begins when our prices become over $10.
 A farmer near Fox Lake, Wisconsin, became very enraged because some boys borrowed his gate on Halloween and was seized with heart failure, dying shortly afterwards.
 Beekeepers will notice that their convention time is approaching. The price of honey is good and the demand for it is increasing, so that bee admirers should take a wholehearted interest in this meeting.

The Fruit, Flower and Honey Show of Ontario will be held this year in Massey Hall, Toronto, as usual. To anyone who has not been there this exhibition will prove a veritable surprise. Its well-arranged collections of fruit, flowers and honey, and its decorations and music, all form a picture to please the eye and delight the soul. Toronto is a central spot and accommodation is good.
 The bailing of hay on our Ontario farms this year has become a big business. Farmers who have not sold hay off their farms for years, were tempted by the big prices at present to market it now. Consequently, bailing machines have been purchased in plenty of localities, while many city dealers have sent their presses to the various parts of the country.

THE DEMON, DYSPEPSIA.—In olden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air, seeking to enter into them and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial.

Philadelphian Crosses Continent Free in Nine Days.
 Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Having broken all records for "deadhead" travel across the continent, William Sufferman 26-years old, reached the bedside of his dying mother here.
 Sufferman made the journey from California in less than nine days. He spent nothing for food or car fare.
 He started on the receipt of the news that his mother was dying with only his nerve, a determination to see her and 25 cents for capital. The quarter was still jingling in his pocket when he reached the city. The net cost of the trip was nothing.
 Sufferman made his journey through beating his way when it was impossible to get a ride otherwise.
 Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator does not require the help of any purgative medicine to complete the cure. Give it a trial and be convinced.
