Good move. In view of encouraging good settlers from Great Britain and Ireland to buy and work our available farms "The Real Estate Mart" is listing all farms for sale that owners may wish, and on terms that admit of no risk or expense to the owner as the time is none too soon for interesting the farmers of the old land to settle here under free conditions, and this seems to be the way to do it. See the notice from Mr. McCallum in another column, touching this matter and judge for yourself of the plan and act promptly.
