

The Lord of Lanoraie, a Canadian Legend, by Robert G. Starke (John Lovell & Son), is a very fair attempt to do for our country what Sir Walter Scott did for Scotland.

Camp and Lamp is a collection of stories and verse by Samuel N. Baylis (Drysdale), of various weight and merit.

WILLIAM WILFRED CAMPBELL.

Besides books of verse and works of fiction quite a number of other works, published during the present year, have been handed to me for review. I shall notice them only en passant with very brief words, seeing that this article is already long enough.

Dr. Dewart's Essays for the Times is a valuable collection. I do not know whether the author has any more essays in reserve, but I could wish that he would give us some more on Canadian
