

We can, and we will, free from all ostentation,
And likewise secluded from rude observation,
Assemble and greet, with kind congratulation,
All kindred in spirit, as well as relation.
And you, who indulge in the anticipation
Of pleasures as pure as the crystal libation
That flows from the fountain of fairest formation—
We promise you feelings of fresh animation,
And joys so celestial, that have derivation
From science that finds in the heart a foundation,
That brings to the spirit a gratification,
And gives to the mind a more pleasing sensation,
And leads it to joys of more lasting duration
Than aught that can call for your consideration,
Or claim, for a moment, a recommendation.
And you'll realize all that most blest expectation
Of gazing on faces with deep admiration,
Whose glances but give you correct information
Of thoughts of which words give but poor explanation.
We'll form, in this cottage, a true combination
Of music, and beauty, and joy, till creation
Contain not another such blooming plantation
Of lilies and roses, of such valuation
That princes might envy the blest situation
Of youths who attend at this grand assignation.
So now, if you really possess penetration,
I think you don't need any more explanation,
But quite understand that our heart's inclination,
At present, goes out for a good constellation
