Officers of the Recently Formed Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association.

The best evidence that the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association will be a success is afforded by the class of men who are its officers, a group of whom are shown. The gentleman standing in the foreground is Mr. W. A. Emory, of Aldershot, the first president of the association. Starting with the back row from the left those shown are Messrs. P. W. Hogetts, Toronto, Secretary Ontario Fruit Growers' Association; A. McMeans, Brantford; E. J. Mahoney, President of the Hamilton Tomato Growers' Association; W. C. McCalla, St. Catharines; George Syme, Jr., Carleton West; H. D. Anderson, Dresden; J. E. Terrill, Picton; W. Carter, Dovercourt; R. Lankin, Toronto. Those sitting in the front row, starting on the left, are Messrs. F. Reeves, Humber Bay, Secretary Market Gardeners' Protective Association, Toronto; John McKay, Doncaster; [illegible] F. Atkin, Sarnia, and Joseph Rush, Humber Bay, the First Vice-President of the Association. The gentleman standing on the right of the front row is Mr. C. A. Putnam, Superintendent of Farmers Institutes.
