Do You?

BY REV. GEO. EVERARD.

CARELESS ungodly man was hard at work cutting down a tree. The clergyman of the parish passed by, and saw what he was doing. "Why are you cutting down this tree?" he inquired. "Because it bears no fruit," was the reply. Then the clergyman very earnestly turned to him, and put the question, "Do you?" The man could not answer. The reproof went home to his conscience. A whisper of conscience within told him that he had been as a cumberer of the ground, and I trust the impression was not lost. "Do you?" Here is a question for all. The great Husbandman walks through His vineyard, and marks every tree that is planted in it. He is not content with a fair profession, but he looks forth to see if there be good fruit, worthy of the toil and trouble He has expended upon it.

"Do you?" Do you bear fruit—good fruit, pleasing in God's sight? What is the fruit manifested in your daily life? By your actions and conduct each day, do you glorify God?

What is the fruit of your lips? What words do you speak from day to day, and from week to week?

What is the fruit of your heart? Even this is seen by the eye of the Omniscient. Is fruit found by God's grace in your heart? Judge your own self. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit will soon be cut down and cast into the fire.—Reprinted from No 7 Frandsen Series, stirring tract.
