

of its staff, but the General Assembly appointed him to the chair of Church History and Apologetics in this College in June, 1873. Professor Campbell graduated from Toronto University with the highest honors, carrying off two gold medals. He has since received from his Alma Mater the degree of LL.D., honoris causa.

Professor Scrimger, after serving a short period in the mission field, accepted the charge of St. Joseph Street (now Calvin) Church, Montreal, just at a time when he was needed to strengthen our staff. While a student he distinguished himself in the departments of Hebrew and Greek Exegesis; and, upon the withdrawal of Dr. J. Munro Gibson from the city, and thus ceasing to be Exegetical Lecturer, Mr. (now Doctor) Scrimger was chosen his successor in June, 1874. This position he held for eight years, during which time the College was not in a financial condition to command his whole time until by special effort, chiefly in the city, provision was made for the support of his chair, and the General Assembly, in June 1882, unanimously appointed him Professor of Hebrew and Greek Exegesis, including Introduction.

Professor Ross, the youngest member of the staff, appointed in June 1893, is thus referred to in the Journal for November of that year: "A native of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, he came to Canada in 1869. After teaching for some years in Ontario he matriculated in Queen's University, Kingston, in 1874, took the degree of B. A. in 1878, and those of M. A. and B. D. in 1881. He held a scholarship every year throughout his whole course. On Sept. 8th of his graduating year he was ordained and inducted into the pastoral charge of Knox Church, Perth, Ont., where he laboured with marked success. Since then he has declined several calls to other churches, the most noteworthy of which was to St. Andrews, of Ottawa. Besides his pastoral work he has lectured on Church History in Queen's University for the last two sessions, where his services were highly appreciated. With such achievements as a recommendation to us, we are convinced that Professor Ross is a great acquisition to our College." The chair occupied by Professor Ross is that of Practical Theology, embracing Church Government, Sacred Rhetoric, Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.

Such is the personnel of our staff. It is composed of men in the vigor of life, skilful in the best methods of education, progressive in spirit, and thoroughly equipped each one for his own department, as well as widely read in other directions, all energetically exerting themselves for the good of students and the fuller development of the Institution. The subjects of the curriculum entrusted to each are indicated in the annual calendar. Their work is supplemented by the services of special lecturers. The Rev.
