Miscellaneous.

It is wise if you are going to put English currants into cake to dry them on a cloth by the fire after washing them, as sometimes the cold water will cause the cake to fall.

GRAHAM mush is a good substitute for a rich pudding on certain occasions. Make just as you do corn-meal mush, but add a few berries or raisins or English currants. Serve with milk and sugar.

MANY cooks consider it a great improvement on ordinary apple-sauce which is to be served with roast goose or with pork, to rub it through a colander, and then to beat it with a spoon until it is very light and almost like pulp.

—LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S Vegetable Compound is a most valuable medicine for ladies of all ages who may be afflicted with any form of disease peculiar to the sex. Its remedies are not only put up in liquid form but in pills and lozenges in which form they are securely sent through the mails.

EVERY event in this world is a syllable breaking from the lips of God. Every epoch in affairs is a completed sentence of His thought; and the great stream of human history is God's endless revelation of Himself.

OATMEAL cakes may be successfully kept from crumbling if you add a little wheat flour to oatmeal mush; knead it, and then roll it quite thin and bake for half an hour in a hot oven. These must be kept where they will be dry, as they absorb moisture surprisingly, and are rendered unfit for use by it.

SURE TO CONQUER.—The most troublesome cough is sure to yield if timely treated with Haggard's Pectoral Balsam. Pleasant to take and safe for young or old.

SELF-DISTRUST is the cause of most of our failures. In the assurance of strength there is strength, and they are the weakest, however strong, who have no faith in themselves or their powers.—Dove.

THERE are some who are cowardly enough to trifle with or nibble at truth, but not bold enough to fling it away. It would be well for us to remember that not merely accepted error, but undervalued truth, has often made havoc of a church and shipwreck of souls.—Bonar.

CREAMED EGGS.—Boil six eggs twenty minutes, make one pint cream sauce. Have six slices of toast on a hot dish. Put a layer of sauce on each one and then part of the whites of the eggs, cut in thin strips; rub part of the yolks through a sieve on the toast. Repeat this and finish with a third layer of the sauce. Place in the oven for about three minutes. Garnish with parsley and serve.

ASK fifty ladies in succession what perfume they consider the most delicate, the most pure and salubrious, the most permanent, and in all respects the most desirable, and forty-nine of them will answer, MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER.

MEAT BALLS.—Meat balls to drop into soup stock are made of veal, with about one-fourth suet as veal, and with three-fourths of bread crumbs, with salt, pepper and parsley, or other herbs to your taste; add one beaten egg, which will moisten and hold the ingredients together; make into round balls, drop into hot lard and fry quickly; drain them well on a cloth, and they are ready for the soup.

AN excellent dish for breakfast is made of six eggs and three tablespoonfuls of ham chopped very fine; beat the eggs, and after melting a lump of butter in the frying pan, drop the eggs into it and stir the ham in; the ham has of course been cooked, either fried or boiled; season with pepper. This is a good way to use up pieces of meat that are left from dinner.

FOR Deep Seated Colds, Coughs, Aller's Lung Balsam cures when all other remedies fail.

LEMONS cut in thin slices make a good garnish for broiled spring chicken. Another garnish, or more properly sauce, to be poured on the platter around the chicken is made by melting currant jelly. Take it out of the jelly tumbler, put it into a bowl and set it over the top of a tea-kettle which is almost full of boiling water; in this way you can escape all danger of burning it.

A PERFECT BEAUTY.—Perfect beauty is only attained by pure blood and good health. These acquirements give the pleasant, pleasant expression, a fair clear skin, and the rosy bloom of health. Burdock Blood Bitters purify the blood and tone the entire system to a healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure COD LIVER OIL, WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES. Is More Nutritious and Strengthening than any other combined or single remedy. The Medical Profession universally attest this fact and prescribe it in Consumption, and all wasting conditions, with splendid results.
