A KNIGHT OF THE NETS

BY

AMELIA E. BARR,

Author of "Jan Vedder's Wife," "Squire of Sandalside," etc.

Attractively Bound in Red Buckram Covers.

PRICE, - - - $1.00.

This charming author needs no word of introduction. Her books have delighted hundreds of thousands of readers on both sides the Atlantic. This splendid new story from her pen shows that Mrs. Barr still holds unimpaired her power to charm. The reader who devoured "Jan Vedder's Wife" will scarcely be disappointed with "A Knight of the Nets."

"Mrs. Barr has in a large degree the pictorial faculty. She not only writes about her characters, their experiences and lives, but she has the power, which we note in her fellows of the sister art, of bringing out the personality of her figures by skilful filling in of a background, by adding those slight but effective touches which give tone and color and life to each group."—Literary World.

"Let me tell thee that, though I read but sparingly any new literary works, I have read every book of thine with great interest. I congratulate thee on their great success, and I am gratefully thy sincere friend."—From letter of JOHN GREENLEAF WHITTIER, the "good grey Poet," to Mrs. Barr.
