

to be paid upon redemption, and fixing a new date for redemption. The mortgagor had been served but did not appear.—Held, that as the mortgagor had not appeared and would in any event be required to pay the taxes and as reasonableness and convenience should be the basis of practice an order should be made for a new account and a new date for redemption. 2. That as it had not been shewn that the payment of taxes was necessary to protect the security and as the mortgagee could have insisted upon payment before redemption, the costs of the application should be borne by the mortgagee: *Mathew v. CANADA GAZETTE.

CHAMBER OF THE SENATE.

OTTAWA, Tuesday, 18th August, 1914.

This day, at 3 o'clock p.m., His Royal Highness the Governor General proceeded in state to the Chamber of the Senate, in the Parliament Buildings, and took his seat upon the Throne. The Members of the Senate being assembled, His Royal Highness was pleased to command the attendance of the House of Commons, and that House being present, His Royal Highness was pleased to open the Fourth Session of the Twelfth Parliament of the Dominion of Canada with the following speech:—

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

Very grave events vitally affecting the interests of all His Majesty's Dominions have transpired since prorogation. The unfortunate outbreak of war made it immediately imperative for my Ministers to take extraordinary measures for the defence of Canada and for the maintenance of the honour and integrity of our Empire.

With respect to such of these measures as may require the sanction and approval of Parliament, the necessary legislative proposals will be submitted for your consideration. Other Bills authorizing additional measures which are essential for the public safety will also be presented to you without delay.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

Estimates will be laid before you to provide for expenditure which has been or may be caused by the outbreak of hostilities.
