are, we rejoice to say, beginning to bear a more en-couraging and brighter aspect. The anticipation of a good harvest, and the reduced prices at which all descriptions of provisions can be procured, have caused the Poor-Law authorities to dispense with the system of out-door relief which they had adopted for some time past. A circular to that effect has took measures to maintain their distinct political been issued by the Relief Commissioners, dated existence. These cantons form the party who, by August 6.

Emboldened by the recent successes of their body at the various borough and county elections, the Repealers are more active and determined in the agitation of their favoured projects then for many months past. The funds of the Association are being recruited by pretty extensive subscriptions and contributions. There have been two meetings at Conciliation Hall since the 4th, namely, on the 9th and 16th instant. At each of these Messrs. John and Maurice O'Connell were speakers. Mr. John Reynolds, the newly-elected Repeal member for Dublin, has addressed the meeting on both days in lengthy speeches, in which he promises to use every exertion, both in Parliament and out of it, for the benefit of "Old Ireland." The rent for the week ending August 16 amounted to about £120.

The Royal Agricultural Society has just been holding its annual meeting in the Maiden City-Londonderry. The attendance was large, and, altogether, the proceedings have given much satisfaction, and will, in all probability, further stimulate the latent energies of the agricultural classes of Ireland, and enable them, by adopting improved methods of cultivation, to produce larger and more abundant crops.

Mr. O'CONNELL's funeral took place at Dublin, with surpassing pomp, on the 5th ulto. A Com-mittee has been appointed, and a subscription list opened for the purpose of creeting a monument to the memory of the deceased.

ROME. - Letters from Rome of the 26th instant, quoted by the Nuremberg Correspondent, says that Alinardi, who is now a prisoner in the castle of St. Angelo, having been known to be one of the chief agents in the conspiracy which has been detected and defeated, has been offered a pardon on condition of his surrendering the names of his fellow-conspirators, and giving to the Government a full confessi-on of the plot. It is further stated that he has al-ready made some revelations, in consequence of which several arrests have been secretly made. In general, the greatest secrecy is observed respecting the investigation which is in progress, and hence the many contradictory reports which are in circulation. It is known that the Pope has conferred the most extensive powers on M. Morandi, the Pro-Governor of Rome, to prosecute this affair.

The Corriere Livornese of the 30th ult. announces that the Pope has summoned Cardinal Lambruschini to Rome. The protest of the new Secretary of State against the occupation of Ferrara by the Austrians had been read in the presence of the members of the corps diplomatique with the exception of the Ministers of Austria and Naples, who had received no invitation. One of the persons present having observed that the document was not written in a diplomatic style, Cardinal Ferretti replied that it was in his style.

July 23np .- The position of the Pontist is painful in the extreme. While he joins with his people in hearty thanksgiving for their providential rescue from an indiscriminate massacre, he cannot scare away the sad conviction, strengthened every hour by oral and documentary evidence, that high officials, holding the first clerical rank, were no strangers to what the Prelate Grasselini ( a now manifest traitor) had connived at and abetted. His sign manual for letting loose more than a hundred miscreants from prison on the previous day; his written orders to admit the blood-thirsty bludgeoumen from Feanga without the usual passport into the city; to the number of several hundreds; his correspondence with the military ringleader, Col. Freddi-but too well justified his precipitate flight across the frontier. That higher personages were cognisant of an expected outbreak, without probably being further initiated into the fouler deeds to be done, is placed beyond doubt by the documents in the hands of justice; and how to deal with these great conniving criminals would be no problem to Sixtus Quintus, but is a very perplexing dilemma to Pins ix .- Daily News.

Portugat.-The latest intelligence from Lisbon to the 9th instant confirms the statement made in our last number, that the Allied Powers, parties to the protocol of the 21st May, would make a formal adjacent to and dependent upon those islands. and on the Queen of T ortugal, and insist upon state paper. A " collective note" has been sent in, admitting the undoubted right of her faithful form whatever. Majesty, under ordinary circumstances, to freely nominate her own Ministers; but considering that the Allied Powers have undertaken certain responsibilities, to which both they and her Majesty are equally committed, they are compelled to urge the necessity of removing the present Alinistry from power, in accordance with the third of the four conditions embodied in the protocol. The best friends of the Queen of Portugal have constantly urged her to adopt unhesitatingly this course, from which there is no escape by intrigue, unless by some infatuation she wishes to rush upon destruction. The Cabrals, although not specifically named in the note just delivered by M. de Varenne, have been so notoriously the origin and cause of the late dis-turbances in Portugal, that the Allied Powers did not scruple publicly to denounce them to the whole world as the disturbers of the tranquillity of l'ortugal, and the public voice of all Europe has confirmed the opinion thus openly declared from such unquestionable authority. Yet, the Queen seems reluctant to exclude them from power; and the Cabralist party seems to be preparing for a return to the exercise of authority. The country is at present tranquil, but unless the Queen complies in good faith with the just demands of the Allied powers whose interposition has just saved the Portuguese nation from the horrors of a protracted civil war, the country must be exposed to fresh interruptions of its repose, and the stability of the throne to serious danger.—The Spanish troops had evacuated Oporto.

SPAIN,-This country continues in the unhappy position of presenting to Europe the scandal of disunited couple occupying the highest rank in the nation. The separation between the Queen and her Consort is not healed, notwithstanding the endea-vours which have been used to bring about a recon-

SWITZERLAND. - Before the closing of the French Chambers, M. Guizot took the opportunity of alluding to the struggles now going on in Switzerland and Italy. The Viscount de Flavigny having interpellated the French Foreign Minister upon these points, M. It will be re-membered that in July last the seven Catholic cantons, Lucerne, Uri, Schwyz, Unterwalden, Zug, Fribourg, Valais, declared a separate league, and took measures to maintain their distinct political universal suffrage, have elected and supported the Jesuits. They chiefly consist of the ignorant rural population, but they have raised an army of sixty thousand men, and have considerable resources at their command. The Diet forming the constitutional federal Government, now sitting at Berne, have passed strong counter-resolutions declaring the separate league of the Catholic cantons to be hostile to the federal compact of 1815, and have added to these, effective precautionary measures in order to control the proceedings of the separating cantons. Both parties, therefore, appear ready and desirous to nately high. For the last ten weeks the weekly give battle, in order to decide this intestine quarrel. returns of mortality from that cause alone are as The extreme difficulty of intervention, and its doubtful results, whilst both parties are in such a state of political excitement, render the case one of great complexity and interest. The latest accounts from Berne to the 12th instant state that Mr. Peel, the English Minister, had an audience of President Ochsenbein on that day, at which he communicated a despatch received from Lord Palmerston, written, it is reported, in the most friendly spirit towards the federal Government, and in which, among other points, it is avowed that England will oppose any intervention directed to paralize the legal action of the Diet. This declaration must only accelerate a crisis, since it can scarcely be hoped that the Catholie cantons, with the open support of Austria, and the secret contivance of France, will submit without a struggle. We are afraid that it is a fierce contest of religious and political prejudice which Hospital, Point St. Charles, on August 30th, there can scarcely he brought to a pacific issue by the were 1198 sick; and 20 deaths took place during interference of foreign bayonets; and yet humanity the preceding twenty-four hours. Now, however, shudders at the spectacle of a nation, the members that the temperature of the air has become cooler of which conscientiously entertain different opinions, we may anticipate a more healthy condition of both being suffered to shed each other's blood. The cantons, now on the brink of war, are all as closely united in a political union as Middlesex and Yorkshire, or as Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. What | 5th, 28. would be thought of the inhabitants of these counties and states taking up arms against each other? The present quarrel in Switzerland is a frightful example of approaching civil war .-European Times.

ISLANDS IN THE PACIFIC.-The following declaration, signed on the behalf of their Majesties the Queen of England and the King of France by their Plenipotentiaries, may be hoped both to remove a threatening cause of misunderstanding between the two governments, and also to secure the rights of a portion of the Islanders in the South Sen. The document states that the two Sovereigns, parties to it, between their respective Governments, relative to the islands in the Pacific Ocean, which are hereafter designated, have thought proper reciprocally to
