

AN OLD-FASHIONED RECIPE FOR A LITTLE HOME COMFORT.—Take of thought for self one part, two parts of thought for family: equal parts of common sense and broad intelligence, a large modicum of the sense of fitness of things, a heaping measure of living above what your neighbors think of you, twice the quantity of keeping within your income, a sprinkling of what tends to refinement and æsthetic beauty, stirred thick with Christian principle of the true brand, and set it to rise.—Selected.

A WESTERN teacher very pertinently says regarding examinations that they cause the teacher "to lean too much on the coming examination to supply the pupil with motive. The enthusiasm of the search for truth is displaced by the dull care of measurement for certain forms of knowledge. The spirit, the imagination, the love, the confidence in the effects of healthy influences, are trammelled." That is so, and every teacher whose class is travelling towards one of these examinations given by outside parties knows it. But not all are honest enough, we fear, to confess it; and so the farce,—no, not farce, but tragedy—goes on.—Popular Educator.
