CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

His Grace the Archbishop returned from the west on Monday.

BRANCH No. 52 of the C. M. B. A. hold a regular meeting at Unity Hall to-night.

Mrs. Geo. Germain and daughter have returned from their holiday in the Gladstone district.

The number of patients treated at the St. Boniface Hospital last week was 57 of whom 32 were males and 25 females.

A. CHEVRIER, of the Blue Store, has bought the suit department in the wholesale stock of J. W. McKedy & Co., lately retired from business.

We regret having to announce the death at Chicago of a sister of Mrs. James Furlong of this city. The first intimation that Mrs. Furlong had of her sister's illness was a telegram she received on Saturday—on receipt of which she took the first train for the south and arrived at Chicago a few hours before death came.

The Truth Society.

The re-opening meeting of the members of this Society held in their Hall on Water street, on Monday evening, was a great success, and promises well for a most interesting session during the coming fall and winter. Besides the members there were also present, Reverend Fathers Cherrier, Archbishop, S.J.; Drummond, S.J.; O'Dwyer, O.M.I.; and Lajennesse. After the routine business had been gone through, a pleasant and profitable time was spent listening to an address by Mr. F. W. Russell, and speeches by all the Fathers present and by many of the members. As we desire to give more space to our report of this meeting than we can spare this week we shall hold over all further reference to it for our next issue.

THOMAS F. DOYLE, a Winnipeg pioneer, died at his residence on Water street, Saturday afternoon. Deceased had been suffering from tumor trouble for about a year, and some months ago was removed to the St. Boniface hospital for the purpose of having an operation performed, but it did not have the desired effect and he was taken to his home, where he gradually sank until death ended his suffering. The deceased leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss. The funeral, which took place Monday afternoon, was largely attended. After service in St. Mary's church, at which Rev. Father McCarthy officiated, the remains were interred in the Fort Rouge cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Beason, Pelson, Smith, Munroe, Grant and Boyd. The widow and family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large number of friends in their bereavement.

A Resolution of Condolence.

At the last meeting of Branch No. 163, C. M. B. A., the following resolution of condolence was passed:

Moved by Bro. Peter Klinkhammer, seconded by Bro. Jos. Shaw, and carried unanimously.

"That whereas God is infinitely wise and good, we should, therefore, always submit in humble resignation to His divine decrees, even when his hand taketh away from us what it had granted. Human nature, however, is such that the hearts of living parents cannot but feel very keenly the loss of any of their children, even though the lot of these is with the angels of heaven: Therefore, be it

"Resolved, that the members of this Branch, No. 163 of the C. M. B. A., feel in true sympathy with Bro. Jos. Malenfant and his wife in their bereavement over the untimely death of their twin daughters, Olive Beatrice and Annie Stella, who departed this life, the former on the 7th and the latter on the 10th of September, A. D. 1895.

"Be it further resolved that this resolution of condolence be sent to the NORTHWEST REVIEW for publication, and a copy of the same forwarded to Mr. and Mrs. Malenfant."

German tongue. Happy it shall be for us to assist him in all that he shall undertake for the interests of his people and the greater glory of God.

In conclusion we would respectfully ask your Grace that we be allowed the privilege to celebrate and keep holy all those days which we have been accustomed to in the old country. Wishing your Grace that success and victory shall crown all your noble efforts and produce abundant fruit, we remain your devoted children. (Signed)

B. WAGMANN,
C. GRAD,
P. YONKER,
F. GIEGER.

His Grace in replying delivered a perfect masterpiece even compared with the many beautiful and touching sermons preached by His Grace under more favorable conditions. What made his words more impressive was the ready translation accorded in the German tongue to each sentence by Rev. Father Zerbach, and the subdued sobs which would burst forth from many quarters of the large reverential audience standing with bared heads in the noonday sun proved that nature in the sturdy German is about the same as in the Gael or the Frenchman.

It will ever be a matter of regret to the writer, and doubtless to many others, that memory alone is left to record the grand words of our beloved archbishop on that day. The following incomplete synopsis, however, may furnish an idea of what was said:

After expressing his pleasure at meeting so many fervent Catholics on his first visit His Grace thanked the people for their kindly reference to his predecessor, the late Archbishop Tache, who had so often hunted for souls through those vast plains, and who had so often spoken to His Grace of his beloved German speaking children. The Faith of the Fatherland as evidenced by the grand cathedrals and monuments and shrines which His Grace had visited; the devotion and industry for which the German people are famous the world over had their fitting sequel in to-day's gathering and everything of faith and opportunity pointed to the Germans of this country making themselves prosperous and contented under a glorious and protecting flag whose folds would never float over injustice or persecution on account of faith. Cherish that flag, obey the country's laws, keep the faith and be assured God's blessing will be always with you. Referring to schools His Grace expressed pleasure at seeing the schools working with the church in that district and was glad they had a good Catholic teacher and that two other schools were being organized in the vicinity. He was proud that the German people always stood out for the principles of morality and religion being inculcated in youth and referred to the victories gained in Germany by the grand Centre Party in that direction. Let Christian teaching pervade every lesson and never let it be said amongst you that Christ is only permitted to enter your schools at certain hours a few moments daily.

Every page of your school books should contain a lesson of morality and true faith. We must not be content to keep the faith in part. St. Paul says "Christ is not divided" so must we be not divided. None the less are Catholics anxious for a first class education and it is a solemn duty on every head of a family to send his children to school. His Grace then led the people to the cemetery near by where prayers were recited and after returning again gave a short instruction and words of warning against intemperance and improvidence and also praised the devotion of his good priests and promised the ministration of priests of their own language. Hundreds were then presented to their beloved archbishop after which a sumptuous repast was tendered the visitors by the good fraus and frauleins of St. Joseph's.

His Grace then accompanied by the four priests and attended by a large number of people in wagons and on horseback proceeded thirteen miles to St. Peter's Colony where a short service was held and several visits made to the homes of those sturdy, thrifty pioneers. A change of horses and a seventeenth-mile drive to Regina where the party arrived a few minutes after the departure of Sir Mackenzie Bowell and party.

That evening His Grace and party with the addition of Rev. Father Leduc dined with Mr. Forget who had just that day received the well deserved promotion to the position of Indian Commissioner. The following morning at 7 o'clock His Grace with Father Belliveau boarded the train for Moose Jaw and from thence proceeded by team 80 miles to Wood Mountain camping one night on the road each way and passing through Regina on the return journey Saturday the 14th.
