

Who May Apply?

The Fund is open to Canadian institutions, agencies, associations, private-sector organizations, universities and individuals who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents. The applicant may be working with an Asia-Pacific counterpart.

Application Procedures

Applications should include the following information:

- objectives of the project;
- scope and content of the project, including a short description of how it is to be carried out;
- detailed budget (with indication of matching support);
- expected completion date; and
- curriculum vitae of applicant or brochure of organization, including indication of related previous experience or publications.

Please note that there is no official application form.