

ARTICLE XII

1. The decision of the Court on the question posed in Article II shall be final and binding upon the Parties.

2. Either Party may, within three months of the rendering of the decision, refer to the Court any dispute as to the meaning and scope of the decision.

3. The Court shall have competence to rectify any clerical or technical error in its decision upon the application of either Party within six months of the rendering of its decision.

ARTICLE XIII

1. Following the rendering of the decision of the Court, either Party may request negotiations directed toward reaching agreement on extension of the maritime boundary as far seaward as the Parties may consider desirable.

2. If the Parties have not reached agreement on the extension of the maritime boundary within one year of the date of such a request, either Party may notify the other of its intent to submit the question of the seaward extension of the maritime boundary for decision by binding third party settlement.

3. If the Parties are unable to agree on the terms of such a submission within three months of such notice, either Party may submit the question of the seaward
