

Gardiner, Mr. Robert—Con.Address in reply—Con.

placing against the Conservative party all votes cast for other parties; position of the United Farmers of Alberta; the speech from the throne, 41; exceptional economic conditions; carrying out pre-election pledges; economic conditions responsible for unemployment and low prices of agricultural products; condition of agriculture in western Canada; proposals in speech from throne to amend the Customs Act; economic conditions in Great Britain and the United States, 42; exports paid for by imports; unemployment and tariff tinkering; Canadian people taking the Conservative party at their face value; Morris W. Wilson of the Royal Bank on "What business thinks of business," 43; contraction of credits; general prosperity up to the beginning of 1928; no opportunity in a few weeks to cope with economic situation; changes in the tariff will not meet the situation; bank credits and price levels, 44; periods of inflation and deflation and the banking institutions; deflation in 1920; proposals of the government totally inadequate to meet the situation; implementing promises in election circulars; establishment of a national highway; promise of "steady employment for all"; advertisements issued on behalf of Conservative candidates, 45; "Canadian fuel for Canadians"; national coal policy, 46

Agricultural implements, duties, 441-3

Beauharnois, Power Corporation, 191

Business of the house, 61

Adjourning at eleven o'clock, 561

Adjournment of house to permit attendance of Prime Minister at Imperial Conference, 489

Arrangements to facilitate prorogation of parliament, 574

Eleven o'clock adjournment, proposed suspension of standing order 7, 60

Point of order, motion to report bill, 223
Customs Act Amendment bill, 270, 281

Point of order, third reading, 296

Election of Speaker, 3

Gasoline for fishing vessels, 599

Imperial conference, representation, 602

Massey-Harris Company, 442-3

Proposed tariff changes, 350, 441

Soldier settlers, unemployment relief, 145

Unemployment relief bill, 144

Valuation for duty on imported goods, 270, 281

Wheat, duty on, 521

Garland, Mr. E. J. (Bow River)

Agricultural conditions in western provinces, 389

Arrangement with leader of opposition, alleged, 39

Privilege, 60

Customs Tariff Amendment bill, 500

Foreclosures of mortgages on western farm lands, 389-90

Imperial Economic Conference, proposals, 14

Proposed tariff changes, 389

Subamendment to M. (Mr. Bennett) 395

Privilege, 447

Russian anthracite coal, imports, 192

Unemployment relief bill, 145, 183

Gasoline

Duty on, 331, 381, 527

Fishing vessels for, 532, 597-8

Prices, 494, 527, 576

Companies taking advantage of tariff increase, 573

Manufacturers, assurances as to maintenance of, 528, 592

Refund of tax to fishermen, 532, 597-8

Gaspé Peninsula Railway, 183Geary, Mr. G. R. (Toronto South)

Customs Act Amendment bill, 255-6

Valuation for duty on imported goods, 255-6

General Steel Wares, Limited, prices of hollow-ware, 591German Silver, duty on, 549*Germany, countervailing duties against, 31*Gershaw, Mr. F. W. (Medicine Hat)

Customs Act Amendment bill, 203, 283

Unemployment relief bill, 81

Valuation of imports for duty, 203, 283

Glass Industry, 537Glue and Mucilage, duty on, 526-7, 594*Gobeil, Mr. Samuel (Compton)

Proposed tariff changes, 333

Gordon, Hon. W. A. (Minister of Immigration and Colonization and Minister of Mines)

Chinese residents, wives, 374

Immigration officers in United States, 376

Gott, Mr. Eccles J. (South Essex)

Point of order, member reading speech, 377

Government. See also House of Commons; Conservative Party

Acting ministers, 602

Appointments, list of, request for, 12

Statement of Mr. Bennett, 13-14