

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Garson: It comprises, Mr. Chairman, claims which are based upon a breach of duty to invitees on premises, to licensees on premises, to trespassers upon premises, to neighbours coming upon premises—but perhaps I had better spell this out. It will take some time, but I think it will make for clarity in the end.

Mr. Argue: Six o'clock.

Mr. Garson: This is quite a large subject, so perhaps we had better stop here.

Section stands.

Progress reported.

Mr. Fournier (Hull): Mr. Speaker, tomorrow we will consider Bill No. 279, to amend the Emergency Powers Act; Bill No. 105, respecting the liability of the crown for torts and civil salvage; Bill No. 227, to amend the Customs Tariff; Bill No. 226, to amend the Excise Act, 1934; Bill No. 225, to amend the Excise Tax Act; and, if we have time, Bill No. 143, to amend the Farm Improvement Loans Act, 1944.

It being four minutes after six o'clock, the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
