

S.O. 43

Broadbent) was quoted as saying on the weekend that whether or not the Prime Minister (Mr. Trudeau) told the whole truth about his dealings with Westminster was irrelevant, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Moose Jaw (Mr. Neil):

That this House commend the Leader of the NDP for his unusually candid admission that in the decision-making process of the NDP, expediency rather than truth is the main criterion, and invite him to revoke the ill-advised decision he has made to ally his party with the Liberals on the Constitution by applying the biblical principle that "The truth shall make you free".

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

TRIBUTE TO MEMBERS OF CANADIAN DOWNHILL SKIING
TEAM—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Irénée Pelletier (Sherbrooke): Madam Speaker, under Standing Order 43, I request the unanimous consent of the House to present a motion dealing with an important and urgent matter.

As Canada has in the last few years made quite a name for itself in the field of downhill skiing, as the members of the Canadian ski team have contributed in no small measure to our unity and national pride, and as three of the most illustrious members of that team are present in the Speaker's gallery, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Parkdale-High Park (Mr. Flis):

That this House pay tribute to the members of the Canadian downhill ski team and congratulate them warmly for their determination, courage and performance.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Madam Speaker: I see the House is enthusiastic about the skiers; I thank hon. members for their enthusiasm.

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

DIFFERENTIATION BETWEEN NATO AND NORAD—MOTION
UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Ron Stewart (Simcoe South): Madam Speaker, I rise under the provisions of Standing Order 43. Whereas the Prime Minister (Mr. Trudeau) revealed last week in Brandon that, after 16 years as a Member of Parliament and 12 years as Prime Minister, he does not yet know the difference between

NATO and NORAD, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Haldimand-Norfolk (Mr. Bradley):

That the Prime Minister be enrolled in a special course for slow learners on the nature of Canada's treaty obligations.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

CAUTION AGAINST NATIONALIZATION OF COAL INDUSTRY—
MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Vince Dantzer (Okanagan North): Madam Speaker, I too rise under the provisions of Standing Order 43. In the aftermath of the signing of the multibillion dollar coal mining contracts in northeastern B.C., creating some 2,300 jobs and placing Canada in the top five of the world's coal exporting nations, and in view of the fact that these long awaited contracts will benefit not only the residents of British Columbia but will reflect on individual Canadians from sea to sea, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Surrey-White Rock-North Delta (Mr. Friesen):

That this House instruct the Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources and the Minister of Finance to refrain from any attempt to nationalize and plunder the coal industry as they have the oil industry.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

VOTING RECORDS OF OPPOSITION PARTIES—MOTION UNDER
S.O. 43

Mr. Jim Fulton (Skeena): Madam Speaker, I rise under the provisions of Standing Order 43. Whereas the voting record of this Thirty-second Parliament shows that the Tories have voted 19 times with the Liberals, while the NDP have voted only seven times with the Liberals, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Winnipeg North Centre (Mr. Knowles):

That the Tories admit they are in bed with the Liberals almost three times as often as the NDP and that Joe publicly formalize his secret organic union with Pierre.

SUGGESTED CHANGES IN HERD MAINTENANCE PROGRAM—
MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Len. Gustafson (Assiniboia): Madam Speaker, I rise under the provisions of Standing Order 43. Due to the very confusing situation which exists under the herd maintenance program, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Moose Jaw (Mr. Neil):
