General Sir A. W. Currie, G.C.M.G.
OTTAWA, Ont.

My dear General Currie:-

Some time ago I received your letter of June 12th, enclosing a confidential letter which had been sent to you by some one from Vancouver who had forgotten to attach his signature. I have gone to some trouble to try and locate the writer, but so far have failed. However I will persist and if I have success will write you again.

I was more than sorry to have missed you when I was in Ottawa. On the first occasion when I was there you were I believe down in the Maritime Provinces and on the second in Toronto. I was anxious to have a chat with you and tell you how much I was pleased with recent developments. I think that the new move to Montreal is one which should be productive of great good both for yourself and for the country generally. I am looking for a future success as great as that which you scored in France. From McGill you will have a splendid platform from which to speak to all Canadians.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Victor W. Odium
